Al Manar And Alhurra Competing Satellite Stations And Ideologies:

Al-Manar and Alhurra Center for Center for Security Studies, 2014-11-16 The current US administration has identified the Lebanese Islamist group Hizbullah as a key threat and the group's media a source of increasing anti Americanism Secretary of Defense Donald Rumsfeld blamed al Jazeera the leading Arabic language news station for encouraging Islamism by broadcasting beheadings of hostages in Iraq a charge the station denies In President George Bush's State of the Union address in 2004 he focused on Arab television stations he claimed are responsible for hateful propaganda against the US The stations distort news and show explicit images producing anti Americanism Al Manar a satellite television service launched by the Lebanese Hizbullah is one of those stations The US maintains that al Manar is anti Semitic and promotes hatred and lists Hizbullah as a terrorist group To counter what is viewed as the promotion of anti Americanism hate and terrorism the administration banned al Manar from American airwaves in December 2004 though legally the basis for banning the television station was due to its role in aiding Hizbullah not its messages The US launched its own television station Alhurra to compete with messages from Arab media outlets in general Are these efforts likely to succeed winning the hearts and minds of Arab and Muslim TV watchers To answer this question an analysis of Hizbullah's appeal is necessary What messages is the station actually carrying and with which constituencies do they resonate How does banning the station affect their credibility I analyze al Manar's ideology and link it to its bases of support I then examine the American actions to counter this ideological influence and how those attempts are received in the Arab world In contrast to previous reports of al Manar's broadcasts my study did not find overt support for suicide bombings or attacks on Americans or Israelis Most coverage was comparable to other stations The basic character of the station mainly comes through in the spots fillers between programmes which highlight negative American policy and military actions in the Middle East and the power of the resistance Hizbullah to protect Lebanon against incursions Al Manar has recently moderated its more extreme rhetoric with the goal of increasing Hizbullah's presence in Lebanese domestic politics as interviewees claimed Indeed research for this study was partly conducted during the period of parliamentary elections in Lebanon If moderation has progressed with political participation the finding is far reaching demonstrating a non confrontational method of mitigating an organization's radical stances Al Manar's stance can be interpreted as the frames or messages of a social movement geared to encourage attitudes which spur action and involvement These messages centre on Palestine the continuing threat posed by Israel American bias in the Arab Israeli conflict the power and importance of community solidarity and pride in Arab culture and the achievements of the Islamic Resistance Hizbullah's armed wing which have strong resonance in the Arab world Alhurra's message is intentionally opposite to these and is interpreted as another element in the western siege against Arab culture As such its presence adds to the polarization of Arab and American messages and perspectives Ironically messages communicated on the station are increasingly rejected as propaganda Viewers watch Alhurra to identify the American spin

while they follow al Manar to learn the dangerous truths banned by the Americans The Politics of Militant Group Survival in the Middle East Ora Szekely, 2016-11-26 This book compares the performances of four key non state actors in the Arab Israeli conflict ecosystem the PLO Hamas Hizbullah and Amal It argues that it is not the assets a militant group has but rather how it acquired them that matters in explaining the variation in these actors abilities to militarily resist and politically recover from confrontations with far more powerful adversaries Groups that rely on marketing campaigns to secure local support and regional patronage do far better than those that rely on coercion or even barter The book develops a typology of organizations based on their foreign and domestic policies which has interesting implications for other non state actors such as ISIS It is based on field research in Jordan Lebanon Israel the West Bank Egypt and Syria including interviews with members of a range of Lebanese and Palestinian militant groups as well as politicians UN staff journalists and members of the Jordanian and Israeli armies The Hizbullah Phenomenon Lina Khatib, Dina Matar, Atef Alshaer, 2014 Hizbullah s management of its image and identity are scrutinised by the authors alongside analysis of the movement s communication strategy political behaviour and performance Provided by publisher Soft Power and Diplomatic Strategies in Asia and the Middle East Zreik, Mohamad, 2024-04-01 In a world witnessing the transformative rise of China the intricate dynamics of its soft power diplomacy have become a focal point of global attention As geopolitical landscapes shift the need to understand how China crafts its foreign policy especially through the strategic use of soft power becomes imperative Soft Power and Diplomatic Strategies in Asia and the Middle East is a crucial resource to unraveling these complexities The book addresses the post COVID 19 changes in China s soft power application providing an in depth comparative analysis of its diplomatic endeavors in the Middle East and East Asia By exploring cultural exchanges economic collaborations and religious engagements the book offers nuanced insights into China s strategies making it an indispensable tool for academics policymakers diplomats and those intrigued by contemporary geopolitics This book aims to dissect the multifaceted approaches China employs to achieve its diplomatic objectives From cultural initiatives to economic partnerships and religious engagements the book unravels the adaptability and complexity of China s foreign policy mechanisms Its primary objective is to provide a comparative framework for studying China s soft power diplomacy filling a notable gap in existing scholarship The interdisciplinary approach ensures rich diverse analyses fostering dialogues across international relations Asian studies and political science By offering new theories methodologies and empirical data the book not only challenges existing notions but also sparks further academic inquiry into the strategic use of soft power in foreign policy The Ideological War on Terror Anne Aldis, Graeme Herd, 2006-11-22 This edited book addresses the appropriateness of US and other counter terrorist CT strategies in Europe and Eurasia the Middle East the Asia Pacific region and in Latin America with a view to improving their effectiveness The book has three main objectives to re examine terrorists strategic goals and sources of legitimacy and the nature of their ideological support to analyze current US and regional CT strategies and assess

Czelusta, 2010-11 Donald Rumsfeld s vision of a transformed U S military has been discussed by many and understood by few and this lack of understanding has resulted in both significant simplifications and sweeping generalizations If Rumsfeld s Transformation is indeed dead does this mean that Transformation as a greater process is dead as well This report discusses the answers to this question which requires one to understand first that Rumsfeld s Transformation Vision RTV is the result of multiple influences that predate his time in office Second RTV is actually an umbrella term for 3 different things a new way of war a process and a defense strategy And third the military services shaped and at times limited the effectiveness of his program Illus
