Energy and Natural Resources, 2008 Schistosoma Barrie G. M. Jamieson, 2017-01-12 Apart from malaria, schistosomiasis is the most prevalent parasitic infection in the world. It affects more than 200 million people in 76 tropical and subtropical countries, causing great suffering and resulting in thousands of deaths. Written by world authorities, this book examines many aspects of the biology, pathology, and control of the schistosome parasite. Ranging in topic from infection in Pharaonic Egypt through DNA relationships and biological systems to advances in development of vaccines against the parasite, this book is a comprehensive text written for researchers and medical professionals alike. International Human Rights Law and Destitution Luke Graham, 2022-08-18 This book explores destitution from the perspective of international human rights law and more specifically economic, social, and cultural rights. The experience of destitution correlates to the non-realisation of a range of economic, social, and cultural rights. However, destitution has not been defined from this perspective. Consequently, the nexus between destitution and the denial of economic, social, and cultural rights remains unrecognised within academia and policy and practice. This book expressly addresses this issue and, in so doing, renders the nexus between destitution and the non-realisation of these rights visible. The book proposes a new human rights-based definition of destitution composed of two parts: the rights which must be realised, the component rights, and the level of realisation of these rights which must be met, the destitution threshold, to avoid destitution. This human rights-based understanding of destitution is then applied to a UK case study to highlight the relationship between government policy and destitution, to illustrate how destitution manifests itself, and to make recommendations founded upon engendering the realisation of economic, social, and cultural rights aimed towards addressing destitution. This book will have global and cross-sectoral appeal to anti-poverty advocates, policy makers, as well as to researchers, academics, and students in the fields of human rights, law, poverty studies, and social policy.
