Albert Hall The Heart Of Canberra:

Albert Hall Lenore Coltheart, 2014-12-01 Joan Sutherland's debut the notorious Petrov Commission a rumoured ghost and rowdy public meetings give Canberra's Albert Hall a history like no other Albert Hall the simple elegant building at the heart of our national capital was Canberra's only performing arts centre for its first 40 years The venue for weekly dances art exhibitions and tours by the Royal Ballet and the Australian Ballet Albert Hall has also hosted citizenship ceremonies and important national occasions This beautifully illustrated book shares the history of this Canberra landmark for the first time

Diversity in Australia's Music Dorottya Fabian, John Napier, 2018-10-30 This volume showcases academic research into the rich diversity of music in Australia from colonial times to the present Starting with an overview of developments during the past 50 years the contributions discuss Western and non western genres opera film dance choral chamber the history of music making in particular cosmopolitan and regional centres Canberra Brisbane the Hunter Valley Alice Springs old new and experimental compositions and a variety of performers and ensembles active at particular points in time In addition cultural tropes and music as social practice are also explored providing a rich tapestry of music and music making in the country The volume thus serves as a model for representing and approaching multicultural musical societies in an inclusive and comprehensive manner

How Local Art Made Australia's National Capital Anni Doyle Wawrzyńczak, 2020-08-31 Canberra's dual status as national capital and local city dramatically affected the rise of a unique contemporary arts scene This complex story informed by rich archival material and interviews details the triumph of local arts practice and community over the insistent cultural nation building of Australia's capital It exposes local arts as a vital force in Canberra's development and uncovers the influence of women in the growth of its visual arts culture A broad illumination of the city wide development of arts and culture from the 1920s to 2001 is combined with the story of Bitumen River Gallery and its successor Canberra Contemporary Art Space from 1978 to 2001 This history traces the growth of the arts from a community led endeavour through a period of responses to social and cultural needs and ultimately to a humanising local practice that transcended national and international boundaries

Canberra, updated paperback edition Paul Daley, 2020-11-16 A strong sense of otherness defines Canberra to a point where there is a smugness bordering on arrogance that the rest of Australia can hate but they'll never know just how good it is to live here Canberra is a city of orphans People come for the jobs but stay on as they discover unanticipated promise and opportunity They become Canberrans prosperous highly educated and proud of their city Paul Daley's Canberra fuses narrative history with poignant memoir and contemporary observation to evoke a city he calls the accidental miracle Beginning and ending at the lake and its submerged forgotten suburbs it chronicles the city's unsavoury early life and meanders through St John's graveyard where pioneers rest Daley contemplates Canberra's vibrant suburban dynamic while musing on a rich symbolism and internal life fostered by the bush and the treasure of the national cultural institutions As fate would have it after Canberra was first published to great acclaim in 2012 Daley moved to

Sydney a change he found wrenching In a new afterword he reflects on how much he misses Canberra as it transforms into a thriving city Daley has unveiled a side of the city that many do not see The Adelaide Advertiser Canberra is both a history and a personal love story The Age Daley s narration is done with flair and aplomb making Canberra the best Canberra history yet Ian Warden The Canberra Times A Chronological History of Australian Composers and Their Compositions Stephen Pleskun,2012-01-17 This book is volume 1 of a 4 volume series the first 3 of which have been published by Xlibris and the 4th almost complete for imminent delivery In its entirety this work is the most comprehensive and accurate account of Australian Classical Music making ever undertaken The 4 volumes cover the period from 1901 2012 and include more than 800 composers famous and obscure with more than 30 000 compositions including details of their premieres where when and by whom Individual performers ensembles orchestras opera and ballet companies music educators instrument makers entrepreneurs academics philanthropists musicologists and critics are included as part of the story The foundation and demise of music institutions venues and festivals is recorded chronologically Altogether an extensive picture of Australian Classical Music production and performance can be gleaned in any given year This book is distinct insofar as it can be read conventionally from cover to cover or one may choose a composer performer and follow his her career year by year or one may open the book at random and delight in the unusual and esoteric information therein This book and its companion volumes are valuable and indispensable works for the serious music student professional musician performing amateur cultural aficionado and inquisitive lay person and should be in the library of every reputable music conservatorium worldwide
