Promoting Law Student and Lawyer Well-Being in Australia and Beyond Rachel Field, James Duffy, Colin James, 2016-04-14 University can be a psychologically distressing place for students Empirical studies in Australia and the USA highlight that a large number of law students suffer from psychological distress when compared to students from other disciplines and members of the general population This book explores the significant role that legal education can play in the promotion of mental health and well being in law students and consequently in the profession The volume considers the ways in which the problems of psychological distress amongst law students are connected to the way law and legal culture are taught and articulates curricula and extra curricula strategies for promoting wellbeing for law students With contributions from legal academics legal practitioners and psychologists the authors discuss the possible causes of psychological distress in the legal community and potential interventions that may increase psychological well being This important book will be of interest to legal academics law students members of the legal profession post graduate researchers as well as non law researchers interested in this area

The Airline Revolution Gordon Mills, 2016-07-15 When starting new airlines in response to government deregulation entrepreneurs in the U S and Europe reduced some traditional service qualities to reduce costs concentrated on non stop services between city pairs not already so connected improved on time performance and offered low fares to win leisure travelers from the incumbents and to encourage more travel In recent developments some of the new airlines have offered optional extras at higher fares to attract business travelers and entered major routes alongside the legacy carriers Within both the U S and Europe deregulation removed most geographical barriers to expansion by short haul airlines Later limited deregulation spread to other world regions where many short haul routes connect city pairs in different countries and where governments have retained traditional two country mechanisms restricting who may fly To gain access to domestic routes in other countries some new airlines are setting up affiliate companies in neighboring countries with each company legally controlled in the country of domicile With air travel growing strongly especially in Asia a common result is intense but potentially short lived competition on major routes The recent developments give clear signposts to likely mid term outcomes and make this an opportune time to report on the new airline scene The Airline Revolution will provide valuable economic analysis of this climate to students airline professionals advancing to senior positions public servants and others who provide advice to governments

Procession David Acton, Norman Lewis, 2015-11-13 This beautifully illustrated catalogue accompanies the first major museum retrospective of the painter Norman Lewis 1909 1979 Lewis was the sole African American artist of his generation who became committed to issues of abstraction at the start of his career and continued to explore them over its entire trajectory His art derived inspiration from music jazz and classical and nature seasonal change plant forms the sea Also central to his work were the dramatic confrontations of the civil rights movement in which he was an active participant among the New York art scene Bridging the

Harlem Renaissance Abstract Expressionism and beyond Lewis is a crucial figure in American abstraction whose reinsertion into the discourse further opens the field for recognition of the contributions of artists of color Bringing much needed attention to Lewis's output and significance in the history of American art Procession is a milestone in Lewis scholarship and a vital resource for future study of the artist and abstraction in his period Published in association with Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts Philadelphia Exhibition dates Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts Philadelphia November 13 2015 April 3 2016 Amon Carter Museum of American Art Fort Worth June 4 August 21 2016 Chicago Cultural Center September 17 2016 January 8 2017
