Firestorm Stephen Prince, 2009-08-06 It was believed that September 11th would make certain kinds of films obsolete such as action thrillers crackling with explosions or high casualty blockbusters where the hero escapes unscathed While the production of these films did ebb the full impact of the attacks on Hollywood's creative output is still taking shape Did 9 11 force filmmakers and screenwriters to find new methods of storytelling What kinds of movies have been made in response to 9 11 and are they factual Is it even possible to practice poetic license with such a devastating broadly felt tragedy Stephen Prince is the first scholar to trace the effect of 9 11 on the making of American film From documentaries like Fahrenheit 9 11 2004 to zombie flicks and from fictional narratives such as The Kingdom 2007 to Mike Nichols's Charlie Wilson's War 2007 Prince evaluates the extent to which filmmakers have exploited explained understood or interpreted the attacks and the Iraq War that followed including incidents at Abu Ghraib He begins with pre 9 11 depictions of terrorism such as Alfred Hitchcock

s Sabotage 1936 and follows with studio and independent films that directly respond to 9 11 He considers documentary portraits and conspiracy films as well as serial television shows most notably Fox s 24 and made for TV movies that represent the attacks in a broader more intimate way Ultimately Prince finds that in these triumphs and failures an exciting new era of American filmmaking has taken shape

Forgiveness and Resentment in the Aftermath of Mass Atrocity Idit Alphandary,2023-12-04 The author s starting point is the interweaving of forgiveness and resentment in the works of Jewish writers after the Holocaust most especially Hannah Arendt and Jean Am ry to make sense of the catastrophe and to point to a way forward for both victims and perpetrators The insights of these two writers and of several Jewish novelists and poets including Bruno Schulz Paul Celan and Aharon Appelfeld are used to develop accounts of forgiveness and resentment in other cases of mass atrocity around the world The author offers a critical rereading of primary sources that aim to separate resentment from nonviolent resistance and forgiveness from reconciliation Forgiveness and resentment are not as they might first appear mutually exclusive Together with Arendt Am ry and Walter Benjamin it is argued that it is through the interaction between them that victims of mass atrocity become agents of personal and cultural change Together forgiveness and resentment interrupt the present reframe the past and shape the future They can reduce the chasm that separates memory and trust by fashioning new connections between identity and alterity which can open paths to truly ethical coexistence for victims and perpetrators and their descendants
