

Chapter 2 Questions:

Directions: Discuss and answer these questions as a group. Each student must write their own answers. We will go over these as a class.

1. What is mercantilism and how did it affect the American colonies?

Idea that a country should maximize exports and minimize imports. Colonies could not keep up with the manufacturing of Britain.

2. What were the Articles of Confederation and when were they in existence? The Articles established the functions of the national government of the United States. The Articles were written after the Declaration of Independence

3. What were the weaknesses of the Articles of Confederation?

- No central leadership
- Limited powers for congress
- No court system

4. Explain the different controversies of the Constitutional Convention and how they were resolved.

- Over representation in Congress - The Great Compromise established the House of Representatives for populational appointment and Senate with equal amounts of members from each state
- Powers of the president - stated executive branch would provide leadership and enforce laws
- Slave trade - United States would stop importation of slaves in 1808
- Bill of rights - Was added to the constitution after members realized its importance

5. Discuss the ratification debates that took place. Who were the anti-federalists? What were some of their arguments?

The two sides debated ratifications for states only having one vote in Congress. Congress didn't have the power to tax, There was no executive branch, There was no national court system, Amendments required a unanimous vote, 9/13 majority to pass in Congress. The anti-federalist opposed the constitution. They argued that the new system threatened liberties, and failed to protect individual rights

6. Proponents of the Constitution argued that the structure would provide a strong central government but preserve the power of the states (FEDERALISM). How
