

AP U.S. Government & Politics Summer Assignment

Why does AP U.S. Government & Politics have a summer assignment?

Advanced Placement courses are designed to enable the student to successfully master the College Board Advanced Placement curriculum in the spring. Upon successful completion of the course, the student should receive college credit (depending on the college's own requirements). A summer assignment allows more time to master the required topics.

This AP U.S. Government & Politics Summer Assignment has been designed to give students:

1. A head start on the required course content,
2. A chance to review their background knowledge of course concepts, and
3. A preview of assignments they will be expected to do throughout the course.

The student's task will be to demonstrate an understanding of the concepts covered in their summer assignment prior to the opening of school. The summer assignment will be graded and counted as a significant part of each student's first marking period grade.

If, at any point during the completion of the assignment, students feel that they aren't up to the task they may want to consider dropping the class. If this is the case they should notify the guidance office as soon as possible. If, however, students are currently attempting to complete the summer assignment but are having difficulty, they should contact their teacher as soon as possible. Failure to meet the summer assignment expectations will be an indication of not wanting to be enrolled in an AP course.

I am dedicated to giving my students the best opportunity to receive college credit. My AP course is highly structured, and very demanding college-level course. Thus it is imperative that a high-level, rigorous academic environment exists in my AP classes and that my AP students are dedicated to learning, highly motivated, and willing to put forth the time and effort, both in and outside of the classroom, required for a course of this intensity.
