Thesis	0	1				For AP® Writing Grade Language
Comments:	For any of the following: - There is no defensible claim. - The provided thesis only restates the prompt. - There is a claim or questionable reconstruction of the prompt, but it does not respond to the prompt. - The writer the prompt or thesis or writes that reading a defensible response is obvious.	Responds to the prompt with a thesis that presents a defensible interpretation of the passage. - There is little to no definition, though suggestions of what is being related indicates that could be useful to suggest that thesis, however, the student does not use that evidence to support their point. - The thesis may include the first or second major structure in the essay, but it doesn't do more than restate the point. - If there is a thesis, the response may be viewed as the point or thesis or as a thesis response reasonably supports the line of reasoning.				Makes no real use of Quoted literary texts to Engage the text
Evidence and Commentary	0	1	2	3	4	For AP® Writing Grade Language
Comments:	Response is irrelevant to the prompt. - Simply restates thesis. - Does not address prompt. - Irrelevant. - Not specific. - No textual or evidence reference is	Merely found Evidence - Introduces - Does not explain how the evidence supports - Does not connect textual claim, specific textual analysis or - Thesis, literary elements or claims, evidence or an explanation	Uses specific Evidence - Explains how some of evidence relates - Includes an attempt to establish or show a connection to thesis - Provides a question to read generalizes - Does not explain, interpret, or evaluate evidence that does not explain the argument	Specific Evidence to support the Claim - Suggests a line of reasoning - Explains how at least one literary element or technique in the passage contributes to reasoning - Textual evidence - Multiple supporting claims - Commentary may fail to integrate some evidence	Specific Evidence to support the Claim - Clearly explains how evidence supports a line of reasoning - Explains how multiple literary elements or techniques contribute to interpretation - Multiple supporting claims, each with adequate evidence that is clearly explained	Agreed specific evidence is Developed with literary claims Integrated, using textual evidence Writing that is clear and effective in pursuit Further detailing of evidence
Additional Notes: Writing that includes an overreliance on what is a repeated answer that includes self-referential or general statements about how the thesis is proven is also seen. To make the writing clear, discuss the response may offer commentary on evidence of the text literary element or textual part that is more than a contribution to the reasoning.
Style/Technique	0	1				For AP® Writing Grade Language
Comments:	For any of the following: - Awkward phrasing/structure - Only one or a couple other possible interpretations - Does not consistently maintain the literary interpretation - Overusing literary interpretation in the passage	Does not make a clear statement of thought and/or develops a complicated essay argument through one or two of the following: - Introducing an opposing perspective or reason within the passage - Dismissing the student's interpretation by changing it within a few lines of writing - Overstating the attitude toward the passage of the passage - Employing a technique to a consistently avoid the main				Has not been sophisticated analysis More of writer's control of language Commentary is present at the elements of literary interpretation
