

AP EUROPEAN HISTORY

CHAPTER 11: THE LATER MIDDLE AGES

➤ Prelude to Disaster

- Climate Change and Famine:
 - I. The period from about 1000 to 1300 saw a warmer than usual climate in Europe which underlay all the changes and the vitality of the High Middle Ages.
 - II. Around 1300-1450 the weather took a turn for the worse becoming colder and wetter, they called this the "Little Ice Age".
 - III. Rivers froze and crops never ripened and archaeological evidence of collapsed houses and emptied villages of Greenland.
 - IV. The Viking colony on Greenland died and the only ones who survived were living in the far north that had been there even before the Vikings had even arrived.
 - V. Across Europe, an unusual number of storms brought torrential rains, ruining everything that both animals and humans depended on.
 - VI. Almost all of northern Europe suffered a Great Famine in the years 1315-1322.
 - VII. Even in non-famine years the prices of grain, livestock, and dairy spiked, in part because diseases hit cattle and sheep.
- Social Consequence:
 - I. Poor harvest and famine led to abandonment of homesteads, in the Scottish-English borderlands, entire villages were deserted. In Flanders and eastern England, some peasants were forced to mortgage, sublease, or sell their holding to richer farmers to buy food.
 - II. Starving people focused their anger on the rich, speculators, and Jews, who were targeted as creditors fleecing the poor through pawn broking.
 - III. Plot by Jews and their agents spread of their intent to kill Christians by poisoning wells, evidence was received through torture and many Jews and lepers were killed, beaten, or heavily fined.
 - IV. The international character of trade and commerce meant that a disaster in one country had serious implications elsewhere. (The infection that attacked the English sheep in 1318 caused a sharp decline in wool exports in the following years, without wool weavers were laid off, without woollen cloth, the business of merchants suffered. Unemployment encouraged people to turn to crime.)
 - V. In England, Edward II condemned speculators after his attempts to set price controls on livestock and ale proved futile.
