

FAKE European History Free-Response Questions

EUROPEAN HISTORY
SECTION II
Part A
(Suggested writing time—45 minutes)
Percent of Section II score—45

Directions: The following question is based on the accompanying Documents 1–12. The documents have been edited for the purpose of this exercise. Write your answer on the lined pages of the Section II free-response booklet.

This question is designed to test your ability to work with and understand historical documents. Write an essay that:

- Provides an appropriate, explicitly stated thesis that directly addresses all parts of the question and does NOT simply restate the question.
- Discusses a majority of the documents individually and specifically.
- Demonstrates understanding of the basic meaning of a majority of the documents.
- Supports the thesis with appropriate interpretations of a majority of the documents.
- Analyzes point of view or bias in at least three documents.
- Analyzes the documents by explicitly grouping them in at least three appropriate ways.

You may refer to relevant historical information not mentioned in the documents.

1. Evaluate the usefulness of the AP European History course in preparing students for college and adult life.

Historical Background: For years, students have suffered and agonized through Mr. Richey’s AP Euro course under the assumption that they are being prepared for college. Mr. Richey always acts like AP European History is, like, the most important course EVER. Sometimes, students wonder whether AP Euro is really an essential part of someone’s education or if it’s just some sort of conspiracy to get students to read a bunch of obsolete texts.

AP European History is the most important class you will ever take in your high school career. Not only is this course going to prepare you for future AP courses and college, but it will also make you more culturally literate and better able to hold intelligent conversations in educated circles. You’ll also find that the skills of point of view (POV) analysis that we’re learning in here are going to help you to be a more discerning person who is able to weigh evidence in several life situations.
