

4.1 American Attitudes About Government & Politics

Political Culture- the dominant set of beliefs, customs, traditions, and values that define the relationship between citizens and the government. American core political values include individualism, equality of opportunity, the free enterprise system, rule of law and limited government.

American Political Culture

1. Individualism- the belief that individuals should be responsible for themselves and for the decisions they make. The fundamental worth and importance of the individual. Enshrined in the Dec of Indep ... "they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights" . The Bill of Rights protects individual rights from government.
- Manifest Destiny- the movement west encouraged rugged individualism
2. Equality of Opportunity- Dec of Indep ... "all men are created equal". The equal rights of people to pursue life, liberty, and happiness

- Teddy Roosevelt's Square Deal- "[E]very man will have a fair chance to make of himself all that in him lies; to reach the highest point to which his capacities . . . can carry him."
- 14th amendment equal protection clause- guarantees that people in similar conditions in every state will be treated equally under the law.

Civil Rights legislation were all about equal treatment under the law.

Americans value equality of opportunity, they do not support equality of result. The United States has not produced economic equality, in which everyone makes roughly the same amount of money or has the same amount of wealth. Rather, Americans value the opportunity to be rewarded for innovation, hard work, education, and determination.

3. Free Enterprise- laissez-faire system-government plays as small a role as possible in the economic transactions among citizens and businesses. America has a mixed economy, in which many economic decisions are left to individuals and businesses, but the federal and state governments shape those decisions through taxation, spending, and regulation.
4. Rule of Law- the principle that no one, including political officials, is above the law. "A government laws and not of man" -James Harrington

Federalist 78- role of an independent judiciary in protecting the rule of law.

Judicial process based on precedent, to insure predictability

Citizens must respect the law and obey it. This is part of the Social Contract.

Transparency in government- the Freedom of Information Act allows citizens to access documents and information kept by the government.

5. Limited Government-authority comes from the consent of the governed and that citizens are "endowed . . . with certain unalienable rights" such as "life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness- Dec of Indep
Checks and Balances
Separation of Powers
Federalism
Const./ Bill of Rights

All contribute to limiting the power of the government

How the Interpretations of these values differ between conservatives and liberals

Education for Liberal Democracy Walter Parker,2023 The book argues that the proper aim of civic education in schools is to shore up liberal democracy shows how discussion can be the main dish not a side dish of classroom instruction shows how classroom discussion develops voice defined as the freedom to make and express un coerced decisions and disciplinary knowledge defined as the knowledge that results from a public process of error seeking contestation and validation argues that students need to learn both disciplinary knowledge and voice if they are to take their place on the public stage and hold the office of citizen in a liberal democracy and finally treats subject centered and student centered instruction as partners not opponents Code of Federal Regulations ,1995 Government Reports Announcements & Index ,1989 Technical Abstract Bulletin ,1978 The Code of Federal Regulations of the United States of America ,1993 The Code of Federal Regulations is the codification of the general and permanent rules published in the Federal Register by the executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government Clinical Laboratory Management Timothy C.
