Essay Scoring Rubric

This essay attempts to address major points integral to high-quality essay writing and is a compilation of several AP Scoreboard rubrics. Apparent literary analysis and essay writing are limited to the characteristics below, and this rubric may change throughout the year based on College Board requirements and skills specific to our class.

1-5 Scale	Criteria and Specifics	Key Descriptors
9 10-12.5	- Masterful adherence to the topic, superior organization, excellent use of language - Aside from necessary background or contextual descriptions to support analysis - There is a strong sense of controlled organization while using sophisticated and mature vocabulary - Just and specific to the text evidence, accurate details, references and quotes - Analysis is insightful into the broader condition - Attempts to address complex elements that lead to an epiphany and a conclusion that may not have been anticipated before. - May present the analysis as a critical secondary source, historical element or critical lesson - Clear thesis statement/claim, smooth transitions, strong and secure structure with present tense verbs only, few to no to be verbs and only active voice - Writing is free of spelling, grammar, mechanical errors	clear controlled logical insightful mature analytical text references well-organized presented direct some text specific and specific
8 10-12.5	- Very slight difference between an 8 and a 9. - Discusses and clearly analyzes with insight, understanding and control - Skilled use of evidence details - Strong use of clarity and variety of sentence structures - The style of writing is consistently less sophisticated - Shows the ideas but seems somewhat formulaic in organization, without an original voice. - May need contextual support - One or two errors in grammar, spelling or mechanics, does not reduce the impact of analysis - Minor if not no parts of speech but does not disrupt organization or clarity
7 8-10	- Slightly better than average. - Follows format with smooth transitions - Good control over sentence structure, clarity and mechanics - Well-written, but not execution of analysis, some insight and accurate details from the text - Organized, concluding but with slightly less sophistication and an 8/9 essay - There are few parts, but mostly consistent - Few grammatical/mechanical errors, a few to be noted	average better less mature style less precise developmental presented sufficient mature performance
6 8-10	- Has 6-7 facts, obvious references present and offering acceptable interpretation of the literature. Descriptive analysis adequately - It presents an idea that is well-known, but does so with clarity - Acceptable style and clarity - Carefully written, but average in its explanation and vocabulary - May have some general or vague references that used to be more specific - Some use of to be verbs and prepositional phrases, passive voice, present/participle tense
