Chapter 9 – State, Society and the Quest for Salvation in India

The Mauryan Dynasty

- Indian unification came mostly because of invasions
- 520BCE – Persian Emperor, Darius conquered part of India
 - Made it a province of Achaemenid Empire
 - Used Persian techniques of administration/governing
- 327BCE – Alexander the Great conquered the northern part, but departed after two years
 - His departure created a vacuum when he destroyed the states and then withdrew, leaving room for others to come in and take over
- By 500BCE, the kingdom of Magadha had taken over the area
 - Within 2 centuries took surrounding regions
 - Took control of all trade passing through the Ganges Valley
- By 321BCE, Chandragupta Maurya began taking over small regions of Magadha and worked his way to the center
 - Brought most of India under his control – centralized government
 - The Arthashastra (manual on instructions for administering an empire) helped Chandragupta set up his government
 - Told how to oversee trade and agriculture, collect taxes, keep order work with other empires and wage war
 - Traditions says he gave up his throne to his son – became a monk – possibly starved himself to death
 - The highpoint of the Mauryan empire came under Ashoka
 - Conquered most of the rest of the subcontinent
 - Much better governor than conqueror
 - Ruled through tightly organized bureaucracy
 - Built capital of Pataliputra
 - Committee looked after foreigners in the city (spied on them)
 - Efficiently collected taxes
 - Inscribed his edicts on natural stone formations or stone pillars
 - Had imperial decrees, urged people to observe Buddhist values & expressed his intention to rule fairly
 - As a result, regions of India became fairly integrated
 - He encouraged the development of agriculture
 - Built extensive irrigation systems
 - Built extensive roads – 1,000 miles
 - Inns, wells and shade trees for travelers
 - Died in 232BCE – decline started quickly
 - Leaders spent too much money on salaries for large army and huge bureaucracy
 - Eventually, they spent more than they took in
 - Because of financial problems, the empire couldn't hold on
 - By 185BCE, it was gone

Gupta Dynasty

- Also based in Magadha (like the Mauryan)
- Dominated the Ganges valley
- Founder was Chandra Gupta

Ap World History Chapter Outlines Traditions And Encounters:

Traditions & Encounters Jerry H. Bentley, Herbert F. Ziegler, 2006 On the basis of a superficial inspection Traditions Encounters might look similar to several other textbooks that survey the world's past Like other books for example Traditions Encounters examines the historical development of societies in Asia Europe Africa the Americas and Oceania Yet Traditions Encounters differs from other works in two particularly important ways First it relies on a pair of prominent themes to bring a global perspective to the study of world history it traces the historical development of individual societies in all world regions and it also focuses attention systematically on interactions between peoples of different societies Second it organizes the human past into seven eras that represent distinct and coherent periods of global historical development Preface Page xvi

World History through Case Studies David Eaton, 2019-09-19 This innovative textbook demystifies the subject of world history through a diverse range of case studies Each chapter looks at an event person or place commonly included in comprehensive textbooks from prehistory to the present and from across the globe from the Kennewick Man to gladiators and modern day soccer and globalization and digs deeper examining why historians disagree on the subject and why their debates remain relevant today By taking the approach of unwrapping the textbook David Eaton reveals how historians think making it clear that the past is not nearly as tidy as most textbooks suggest Provocative questions like whether ancient Greece was shaped by contact with Egypt provide an entry point into how history professors may sharply disagree on even basic narratives and how historical interpretations can be influenced by contemporary concerns By illuminating these historiographical debates and linking them to key skills required by historians World History through Case Studies shows how the study of history is relevant to a new generation of students and teachers

Maps of Time David Christian, 2011-09 Introducing a novel perspective on the study of history David Christian views the interaction of the natural world with the more recent arrivals in flora fauna including human beings

Homer's Traditional Art John Miles Foley, 2011-12-31 In recent decades the evidence for an oral epic tradition in ancient Greece has grown enormously along with our ever increasing awareness of worldwide oral traditions John Foley here examines the artistic implications that oral tradition holds for the understanding of the Iliad and Odyssey in order to establish a context for their original performance and modern day reception In Homer's Traditional Art Foley addresses three crucially interlocking areas that lead us to a fuller appreciation of the Homeric poems He first explores the reality of Homer as their actual author examining historical and comparative evidence to propose that Homer is a legendary and anthropomorphic figure rather than a real life author He next presents the poetic tradition as a specialized and highly resonant language bristling with idiomatic implication Finally he looks at Homer's overall artistic achievement showing that it is best evaluated via a poetics aimed specifically at works that emerge from oral tradition Along the way Foley offers new perspectives on such topics as characterization and personal interaction in the epics the nature of Penelope's heroism the implications of feasting and lament and the problematic ending of the Odyssey

His comparative references to the South Slavic oral epic open up new vistas on Homer's language narrative patterning and identity Homer's Traditional Art represents a disentangling of the interwoven strands of orality textuality and verbal art It shows how we can learn to appreciate how Homer's art succeeds not in spite of the oral tradition in which it was composed but rather through its unique agency Caliphate and Kingship in a Fifteenth-Century Literary History of Muslim Leadership and Pilgrimage Jo van Steenberg, 2016-11-07 In Caliphate and Kingship Jo Van Steenberg presents a revisionist cultural biography a critical edition and an annotated translation of al ahab al Masb k a summary history of the a and Muslim rule by Egypt's leading historian al Maqr z d 1442 CE Music Jean Ferris, 1998-07 Emphasizing music in the context of the society that surrounds it Music The Art of Listening weaves the development of Western music into the fabric of cultural history paying special attention to the biographies of significant composers In a clear and accessible format it introduces music from centuries past as well as that of the current era and helps the listener develop techniques to fully appreciate music in public performance halls on the radio in films or in the theater Among the highlights of this seventh edition is a greatly expanded selection of Listening Examples which are available on the text's companion CD set The Economics of Ignorance and Coordination Thierry Aimar, 2014-05-14 This book clarifies the specific nature of the Austrian theory and restores the unity and open mindedness of the Austrian school in general The intention is not to offer a collection of different or parallel ideas but rather to retrace from a pedagogic Quill & Scroll , 2001 Women Filmmakers Jacqueline Levitin, Judith Plessis, Valerie Raoul, 2016-02-29 This wide ranging volume of new work brings together women filmmakers and critics who speak about what has changed over the past twenty years Including such filmmakers as Margarethe von Trotta Deepa Mehta and Pratibha Parmar and such critics as E Ann Kaplan this comprehensive volume addresses political artistic and economic questions vital Merchants of Virtue Divya Cherian, 2022-12-27 A free ebook version of this title is available through Luminos University of California Press's Open Access publishing program Visit www.luminosoa.org to learn more Winner of the 2022 Joseph W Elder Prize in the Indian Social Sciences Merchants of Virtue explores the question of what it meant to be Hindu in precolonial South Asia Divya Cherian presents a fine grained study of everyday life and local politics in the kingdom of Marwar in eighteenth century western India to uncover how merchants enforced their caste ideals of vegetarianism and bodily austerity as universal markers of Hindu identity Using legal strategies and alliances with elites these merchants successfully remade the category of Hindu setting it in contrast to Untouchable in a process that reconfigured Hinduism in caste terms In a history pertinent to understanding India today Cherian establishes the centrality of caste to the early modern Hindu self and to its imagination of inadmissible others
