challenges just haven't been enough. Despite living the good life in Texas, his girlfriend Sunshine knows as well as he does that no matter how happy Axe might be, he'll always have demons inside to battle. He trades his current ride, the Goat, for its steroid-pumped younger cousin, the Cadillac. After equipping the triple-black beauty with mirror-mounted radar detection and thermal vision, he takes a test run to Colorado and back. Next, he finishes building the most exotic chopper of his career and rides this chrome steed to Daytona Beach. But neither of these vehicles or trips are enough for his insatiable need for adrenaline. Finally, the idea of riding his BMW S1000RR motorcycle from the Pacific to the Atlantic consumes his twisted mind. Axe prepares by modifying the BMW, installing the latest gadgetry, and training. Eventually, brains pass the torch to balls as it becomes clear the task is not intended for the weak or sensible. Through pure determination, the leather-clad biker shatters the record for the fastest motorcycle ride across America.

Glamour: A love letter to Japanese culture. Country Town House: Flo is sick of Tokyo. Suffering from a crisis in confidence, she is stuck in a rut; her translation work has dried up, and she's in a relationship that's run its course. That's until she stumbles upon a mysterious book left by a fellow passenger on the Tokyo Subway. From the very first page, Flo is transformed and immediately feels compelled to translate this forgotten novel, a decision which sets her on a path that will change her life. As Flo follows the characters across a year in rural Japan through the ups and downs of the pair's burgeoning relationship, she quickly realises that she needs to venture outside the pages of the book to track down its elusive author. And as the two protagonists reveal themselves to have more in common with her life than first meets the eye, the lines between text and translator converge, and it soon becomes clear that Flo's journey is just beginning.
