Integrated Air Quality Management Nguyen Thi Kim Oanh,2012-07-05 The steady growth in the number of vehicles on the road heavy reliance on coal use of dirty fuels for residential combustion and extensive open burning are some of the major factors leading to the progressive deterioration of air quality in developing countries in Asia And despite efforts to establish and implement air quality measurement systems the development of infrastructure environmental technology and management practices continues to lag behind the rate of emission increase Based on ten years of coordinated research Integrated Air Quality Management Asian Case Studies discusses technical and policy tools for the integrated air quality management of developing countries in Asia The book begins with an overview of major issues of air quality management practices in developing Asia and potential approaches to reduce pollution including opportunities for integration of air quality improvement and climate migration strategies It covers the methodology and results of fine particulate matter monitoring using traditional filter based and satellite monitoring techniques It examines the applications of a 3D dispersion modeling tool for urban and regional air quality management focusing on surface ozone fine particulate matter and acid deposition The final chapters discuss innovative control technologies for gaseous air pollutants and illustrate the integrated air quality management in developing Asia through case studies for target source categories including agricultural residue field burning vehicle emissions brick kilns and industrial VOC emission Illustrated with case studies this book presents an integrated air quality management methodology that employs technical and policy tools to achieve air quality goals It includes technical information and policy recommendations based on the outcomes of several multi year air quality research programs coordinated by the Asian Institute of Technology The text combines fundamental information and advanced knowledge useful to large audiences dealing with subjects of integrated air quality management

Focus On: 100 Most Popular Sedans Wikipedia contributors, Technologies of Suspicion and the Ethics of Obligation in Political Asylum Bridget M. Haas, Amy Shuman, 2019-03-11 Across the globe migration has been met with intensifying modes of criminalization and securitization and claims for political asylum are increasingly met with suspicion Asylum seekers have become the focus of global debates surrounding humanitarian obligations on the one hand and concerns surrounding national security and border control on the other In Technologies of Suspicion and the Ethics of Obligation in Political Asylum contributors provide fine tuned analyses of political asylum systems and the adjudication of asylum claims across a range of sociocultural and geopolitical contexts The contributors to this timely volume drawing on a variety of theoretical perspectives offer critical insights into the processes by which tensions between humanitarianism and security are negotiated at the local level often with negative consequences for asylum seekers By investigating how a politics of suspicion within asylum systems is enacted in everyday practices and interactions the authors illustrate how asylum seekers are often produced as suspicious subjects by the very systems to which they appeal for protection Contributors Ilil Benjamin Carol Bohmer Nadia El Shaarawi Bridget M Haas John Beard Haviland Marco Jacquemet Benjamin N Lawrance Rachel Lewis Sara McKinnon Amy Shuman Charles Watters

African Peacekeeping Training Centres Anne Flaspöler, 2018-10-26 Peacekeeping training centres play a crucial role in preparing peacekeepers for their deployment However despite their popularity within the international community as a tool for achieving international security development and state building objectives they have not received a great deal of analysis or academic attention This book provides an in depth analysis of peacekeeping training in Africa tracing how centres have adapted to the operational and normative changes of peace operations over time and raising questions about the expectations attached to these training efforts and their impact The book examines training content and methods in detail exploring the potential of peacekeeping training centres as sites for socialisation and diffusing international norms in an effort to change and shape peacekeepers behaviour The analysis is based on two contrasting case studies selected to show the spectrum of training centres operating in Africa namely the Kofi Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre KAIPTC in Accra Ghana and the African Centre for the Constructive Resolution of Disputes ACCORD in Durban South Africa At a time when impact is being determined by the number of course attendees this book provides an important critical assessment of training efforts and what they are supposed to achieve It will be of interest to scholars and practitioners within the fields of international security peacekeeping and African development

Negotiating Peace Renée Jeffery, 2021-03-18 A study of how and why amnesties for human rights violations remain a prevalent feature of peace processes in Asia
