Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: Committee for Privileges and Conduct, 2014-05-12 Lord Hanningfield's case arose after the Daily Mirror published in December 2013 articles about Lord Hanningfield spending short periods of time on the parliamentary estate in July 2013 whilst claiming the daily allowance of 300. Following the articles a complaint was made to the Commissioner for Standards. The Commissioner for Standards undertook an investigation which focused on 11 sitting days in July 2013 when Lord Hanningfield was on the Parliamentary estate for fewer than 40 minutes and claimed 300 for each day. The Commissioner found that Lord Hanningfield did not undertake parliamentary work on the days in question and was in breach of the Code of Conduct. The Sub-committee considered the case and recommended that Lord Hanningfield be required to repay the 3 300 he wrongly claimed and that he be suspended from the service of the House until the end of the current Parliament. Lord Hanningfield appealed but the Committee did not uphold the appeal and maintained the original recommendation to pay the 3 300 and be suspended from service of the House. Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1983-12 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Kiplinger's Personal Finance ,1983-01 The most trustworthy source of information available today on savings and investments taxes money management home ownership and many other personal finance topics Die Casting Engineer ,2003
