

The Cold War Heats Up

1. As you read the passage, fill in the information you discover about the Soviet-American agreement below.

	What the Soviets Wanted	What the Americans Wanted
1. Would it make any sense to build space weapons and launch them?	That U.S. suspend the prohibition of launching nuclear weapons	Not really
2. Would anyone benefit from the launch and deployment of such weapons?	They would certainly gain control of the launch and use of the nuclear weapons already in the air	They might win the race to build intercontinental ballistic missiles but U.S. technology was still ahead. Russia lacked the range, planned system for control of launched weapons, and needed all launched weapons destroyed
3. Would anyone disagree with this?	Not really	Some might be against launch and deployment and also destruction
4. Would the two nations agree to launch and destroy weapons?	Yes, the governments had to negotiate. There had to be common interests	Yes, American public was concerned and would not take a decision until the time

2. Suppose the agreement simply set up the program, without these (other) provisions. What would happen? Would the launching and destruction be done?

Discuss. Explain. What provisions the President's plan would the Soviet Union have that set limits and conditions
