Ambient Literature Tom Abba,Jonathan Dovey,Kate Pullinger,2020-11-30 This book considers how a combination of place based writing and location responsive technologies produce new kinds of literary experiences Building on the work done in the Ambient Literature Project 2016 2018 this books argues that these encounters constitute new literary forms in which the authored text lies at the heart of an embodied and mediated experience The visual sonic social and historic resources of place become the elements of a live and emergent mise en scene Specific techniques of narration including hallucination memory history place based writing and drama as well as reworking of traditional storytelling forms combine with the work of app and user experience design interaction software authoring and GIS geographical information systems to produce ambient experiences where the user reads a textual and sonic literary space These experiences are temporary ambiguous and unpredictable in their meaning but unlike the theatre the gallery or the cinema they take place in the everyday shared world The book explores the potentiality of a new literary form produced by the exchange between location aware cultural objects writers and readers This book and the work it explores lays the ground for a new poetics of situated writing and reading practices

The Moral Case for Profit Maximization Robert White, 2020-04-01 The Moral Case for Profit Maximization argues that profit maximization is moral when businessmen seek to maximize profit by creating goods or services that are of objective value Traditionally profit maximization has been defended on economic grounds Profit economists argue incentivizes businessmen to produce goods and services In this view businessmen do not need to be virtuous as long as they deliver the goods It challenges the traditional defense of profit maximization arguing that profit maximization is morally ambitious because it requires businessmen to form normative abstractions and to cultivate a virtuous character In so doing the author also challenges the moral basis of corporate social responsibility Proponents of CSR argue that businessmen can do good while doing well This book argues that businessmen already do good by maximizing profit drawing upon the histories of the wheel the refrigerator and the shipping container as well as the biographies of J P Morgan John D Rockefeller and Thomas Edison to demonstrate the role of values in the creation of material goods and the role of the virtues in value creation The author challenges readers to rethink the relationship between profit value and virtue
