subjugation to examine social change in the lives of these women she shows the stages of unbinding that occurred in the decades between the turn of the century and the end of World War II The setting for this captivating history is San Francisco which had the largest Chinese population in the United States Yung a second generation Chinese American born and raised in San Francisco uses an impressive range of sources to tell her story Oral history interviews previously unknown autobiographies both English and Chinese language newspapers government census records and exceptional photographs from public archives and private collections combine to make this a richly human document as well as an illuminating treatise on race gender and class dynamics While presenting larger social trends Yung highlights the many individual experiences of Chinese American women and her skill as an oral history interviewer gives this work an immediacy that is poignant and effective Her analysis of intraethnic class rifts a major gap in ethnic history sheds important light on the difficulties that Chinese American women faced in their own communities Yung provides a more accurate view of their lives than has existed before revealing the many ways that these women rather than being passive victims of oppression were active agents in the making of their own history The crippling custom of footbinding is the thematic touchstone for Judy Yung's engrossing study of Chinese American women during the first half of the twentieth century Using this symbol of subjugation to examine social change in the lives of these women

The Child Gaze Amanda M. Greenwell, 2024-11-20 The Child Gaze Narrating Resistance in American Literature theorizes the child gaze as a narrative strategy for social critique in twentieth and twenty first century US literature for children and adults Through a range of texts including James Baldwin's Little Man Little Man Mildred D Taylor's Roll of Thunder Hear My Cry Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Gene Luen Yang's American Born Chinese and more Amanda M Greenwell focuses on children and their literal acts of looking Detailing how these acts of looking direct the reader she posits that the sightlines of children serve as signals to renegotiate hegemonic ideologies of race ethnicity creed class and gender In her analysis Greenwell shows how acts of looking constitute a flexible and effective narrative strategy capable of operating across multiple points of view focalizations audiences and forms Weaving together scholarship on the US child visual culture studies narrative theory and other critical traditions The Child Gaze explores the ways in which child acts of looking compel readers to look at and with a child character whose gaze encourages critiques of privileged visions of national identity Chapters investigate how child acts of looking allow texts to redraw circles of inclusion around the locus of the child gaze and mobilize childhood as a site of resistance The powerful child gaze can thus disrupt dominant scripts of power widening the lens through which belonging in the US can be understood

A Study of American-born and American-reared Chinese in Los Angeles Kit-King Louis, 1931 The Power of Chinatown Laureen D. Hom, 2024-06-18 Urban Chinatowns are dynamic contested spaces that have persevered amid changes in the American cityscape These neighborhoods are significant for many from the residents and workers who rely on them for their livelihoods to the broader Chinese American community and political leaders who recognize their cultural heritage and economic value In The Power of Chinatown Lauren D Hom provides a critical examination of the politics shaping the trajectory of development in Los Angeles Chinatown one of the oldest urban Chinatowns in the United States Working from ethnographic fieldwork Hom chronicles how Chinese Americans continue to gravitate to this space despite being a geographically dispersed community and how they have both resisted and encouraged processes of gentrification and displacement The Power of Chinatown bridges understandings of community geography political economy and race to show the complexities and contradictions of building community power illuminating how these place based ethnic politics might give rise to a more expansive vision of Asian American belonging and a just city for all American Paper Son Wayne Hung Wong, 2024-04-22 In the early and mid twentieth century Chinese migrants evaded draconian anti immigrant laws by entering the US under false papers that identified them as the sons of people who had returned to China to marry Wayne Hung Wong tells the story of his life after emigrating to Wichita Kansas as a thirteen year old paper son After working in his father s restaurant as a teen Wong served in an all Chinese Air Force unit stationed in China during World War II His account traces the impact of race and segregation on his service experience and follows his postwar life from finding a wife in Taishan through his involvement in the government s amnesty program for Chinese immigrants and career in real estate Throughout Wong describes the realities of life as part of a small Chinese American community in a midwestern town Vivid and rich with poignant insights American Paper Son explores twentieth century Asian American history through one person s experiences Northwest Anthropological Research Notes Roderick Sprague, Deward E. Walker, Jr., An Annotated Bibliography of Overseas Chinese History and Archaeology Dixie E Ehrenreich Priscilla Wegars Jonathan Horn and Karen E Smith Abstracts of Papers Presented at the 37th Annual Northwest Anthropological Conference 21-23 March 1984 Spokane Washington Terrestrial Oriented Sites in a Marine Environment Along the Southern Oregon Coast Richard E Ross A Check List of Columbia Basin Project Papers Roderick Sprague Chinese Heritage in British Christianity Alexander Chow, 2025-03-28 This is a critical and unique time for British Chinese Christians On the one hand the national churches of each of Britain s four nations have experienced an unprecedented decline in church attendance On the other hand British Chinese Christianity is today amongst the fastest growing Christian populations in the United Kingdom But there is a much longer history in the background with the first Chinese Christian in Britain dated to the 17th century and a sizeable population existing since the late 19th century eventually creating the first Chinese church established in Liverpool in 1910 This book tells the story of the rise of British Chinese Christianity and how the British Chinese have been shaping and reshaping the future of British Christianity It brings together theological educators church ministers and parachurch leaders in a collaborative project speaking to the historical and contemporary situation of British Chinese Christianity and prospects moving forward Resources in Education , 1999-04 Citizens, Immigrants, and the Stateless Michael R. Jin, 2021-11-16 From the 1920s to the eve of the Pacific War in 1941 more than 50 000 young second generation Japanese Americans Nisei embarked on transpacific journeys to the Japanese Empire putting an ocean between themselves and pervasive anti Asian racism in the American West Born U S citizens but treated as unwelcome aliens this contingent of Japanese Americans one in four U S born Nisei came in search of better lives but instead encountered a world shaped by increasingly volatile relations between the U S and Japan Based on transnational and bilingual research in the United States and Japan Michael R Jin recuperates the stories of this unique group of American emigrants at the crossroads of U S and Japanese empire From the Jim Crow American West to the Japanese colonial frontiers in Asia and from internment camps in America to Hiroshima on the eve of the atomic bombing these individuals redefined ideas about home identity citizenship and belonging as they encountered multiple social realities on both sides of the Pacific Citizens Immigrants and the Stateless examines the deeply intertwined histories of Asian exclusion in the United States Japanese colonialism in Asia and volatile geopolitical changes in the Pacific world that converged in the lives of Japanese American migrants Being Chinese, Becoming Chinese American Shehong Chen, 2023-03-20 The 1911 revolution in China sparked debates that politicized and divided Chinese communities in the United States People in these communities affirmed traditional Chinese values and expressed their visions of a modern China while nationalist feelings emboldened them to stand up for their rights as an integral part of American society When Japan threatened the China s young republic the Chinese response in the United States revealed the limits of Chinese nationalism and the emergence of a Chinese American identity Shehong Chen investigates how Chinese immigrants to the United States transformed themselves into Chinese Americans during the crucial period between 1911 and 1927 Chen focuses on four essential elements of a distinct Chinese American identity support for republicanism over the restoration of monarchy a wish to preserve Confucianism and traditional Chinese culture support for Christianity despite a strong anti Christian movement in China and opposition to the Nationalist party s alliance with the Soviet Union and cooperation with the Chinese Communist Party Sensitive and enlightening Being Chinese Becoming Chinese American documents how Chinese immigrants survived exclusion and discrimination envisioned and maintained Chineseness and adapted to American society Forbidden Citizens Martin Gold, 2011-12-01 Described as one of the most vulgar forms of barbarism by Rep John Kasson R IA in 1882 a series of laws passed by the United States Congress between 1879 and 1943 resulted in prohibiting the Chinese as a people from becoming U S citizens Forbidden citizens recounts this long and shameful legislative history Page 4 of cover The Chinese Laundryman Paul C.P. Siu, 1987 The definitive scholarly study of Chinese laundries and those who worked in them in the U S Considered a classic piece by students of overseas Chinese and Asian American studies The Chinese Laundryman is also a landmark in the study of ethnic occupations and in the social and cultural history of the immigrant in America Lightning Print On Demand Title Outside the Paint Kathleen Yep, Outside the Paint takes readers back to the Chinese Playground of San Francisco in the 1930s and 1940s the only public outdoor space in Chinatown It was a place where young Chinese American men and women developed a new approach to the game of basketbal with fast breaks intricate passing and aggressive defense that was ahead of its time Drawing on interviews with players and coaches Kathleen Yep recounts some surprising stories From the success of the Hong Wah Kues a professional barnstorming men s basketball team and the Mei Wahs a championship women s amateur team to Woo Wong the first Chinese athlete to play in Madison Square Garden and his extraordinarily talented sister Helen Wong who is compared to Babe Didrikson Outside the Paint chronicles the efforts of these highly accomplished athletes who developed a unique playing style that capitalized on their physical attributes challenged the prevailing racial hierarchy and enabled them for a time to leave the confines of their segregated world As they learned to dribble shoot and steal they made basketball a source of individual achievement and Chinese American community pride
