

American Gov. Chapter 1 Notes

1.1

Government: How society organizes itself and allocates authority to accomplish collective goals

- Gov. benefits for citizens examples: Education, health care, and an infrastructure for transportation

Politics: The process of gaining and exercising control within a gov. To achieve goals

- Gov. systems and economic systems get confused for one another because some political thoughts are closely related to some economic systems
 - Ex: Capitalism developed around the same time as democratic republics, self-gov. and natural rights

John Locke: "All people have natural rights to life, liberty and property (be free to consent to being governed)"

Adam Smith: "All people should be free to acquire property in any way instead of being controlled by the gov"

Democracy: Political system where people govern themselves with capitalism

Socialism: Economic system where generated wealth are owned by gov's, and not private individuals

Oligarchy: Only members of a certain political party or ruling elite can participate in gov Ex: [China=Communist Party]

Private Goods: Food, clothing, housing etc are provided in ample supply by private businesses that earn a profit in return

Public Goods: Goods that are provided by the gov. and are available to all without charge (national security and education)

Toll Good: Goods that are available but only if people can pay the price (private school) vs public school

- Exs of public goods: Emergency services, mail services

Common Goods: Goods that people can use free of charge but are of limited supply

Ex: Fish, Clean drinking water -REGULATED ACCESS-

- In the U.S. people elect representatives to city councils, state legislature, and congress (they make laws to govern their jurisdiction)

1. Local Level: Funds are allotted for education, police, fire departments and maintenance of public parks (state governments allocate money for roads, bridges, state colleges and universities)
2. National Level: Money goes to defense social security, maintenance of federal courts and prisons, and pensions for veterans
3. Each Level: Representatives try to secure funding for things that will benefit those who live in the area they represent

★ Local, state and national governments make laws to maintain order and

The Tea Party Papers Volume Ii Bill Miller,2014-01-15 Finally buttressed with Natures bounty fortified with Natures gifts testifying to Natures truth we must be ready to take a leap in faith The hardest leap of faith to believe in is a leap of faith in each other in the individual In the end the only way a government of the Individuals by the Individuals for the Individual can long endure on the face of the Earth Faith in God alone cannot suffice for such a government to work It is the most necessary prerequisite for such a government to exist But it cannot retain it cannot nurture it because the government is a covenant a pact made between God and the individual If we lose faith in the individual we break the sacred pact Being granted so many gifts the last act is in our own hands we are the City on the Hill when we believe we are the City on the Hill When we act the part we are the Light of the world and the Inspiration to the World It is really simple if enough individuals carry out this leap of faith a new critical mass will be reached and a miracle will turn the tide in our affairs once more and we like the patriots of old will once again fulfill our own self actualization process and bequeath to our posterity the ability and responsibility to reach their own

Hollywood Goes Shopping David Desser,Garth Jowett,2000 Aggressive product placement and retail tie ins are as much a part of moviemaking today as high concept scripts and computer generated special effects but this phenomenon is hardly recent Since the silent era Hollywood studios have proved remarkably adept at advertising both their own products and a bewildering variety of consumer commodities successfully promoting the idea of consumption itself Hollywood Goes Shopping brings together leading film studies scholars to explore the complex and sometimes contradictory relationship between American cinema and consumer culture providing an innovative reading of both film history and the evolution of consumerism in the twentieth century
