Friendship Across the Seas Naoyuki Agawa, 2023-08-06 This Open Access book describes the history of the relationship between the Japan Maritime Self Defense Force JMSDF the heir to the Imperial Japanese Navy IJN and the United States Navy US Navy with a focus on the individuals who helped build it Former enemies who fought fiercely on the seas and in the air during the Pacific War the two navies came to respect each other in action Soon after the war when the Cold War turned hot they began to work together as allies driven by their respective national interests With the generous assistance of the US Navy the JMSDF was established as its counterpart Over the years these two navies have gradually built strong ties Individual officers and sailors on both sides overcame mixed feelings about their erstwhile foes to feel respect for and trust in each other This was made possible by conducting countless joint exercises and operations at sea US Navy leaders began to realize that this small maritime force notwithstanding domestic political constitutional and legal limitations does its job well is reliable and can be fully trusted The JMSDF realized that sharing common interests and values there was no better navy in the Asia Pacific region to ally with Over seventy years of accumulated shared experiences have transformed this into perhaps the most successful navy to navy partnership in the world The US Japan maritime alliance today is anchored in this history Numerous admirals officers and sailors of the two navies working together have greatly contributed to the stability and prosperity of the Asia Pacific region for the past seven decades This book is intended for readers interested in the history of US Japan relations and for naval officers and sailors from the US and other countries It is the author s sincere desire that they read this book and appreciate the longstanding cooperation between the JMSDF and the US Navy

A Stunning World of Faith, Family, and Friendship- and The Unforeseeable Ronald C. Leadbetter, 2023-04-26 Much of the world we live in is perceived by many as dangerous and unfriendly Well into his early adulthood the author thought so to the extent that he had little interest in traveling outside the boundaries of his homeland He certainly lacked any interest whatsoever in traveling overseas While the author travelled extensively throughout the United States for work related as well as personal purposes preplanning of trip details was the norm Assistance of tourist agencies was utilized regularly in order to assure comfort and safety Overnight accommodations were almost always prearranged All plans focused on assuring comfort and convenience While the author proclaimed Christian faith early in his professional career that proclamation did not extend to sharing that faith with others outside the United States or even locally outside the author's comfort zone. The author refrained from personally interacting with people of unfamiliar cultures let alone those in foreign locales deemed difficult or even impossible to reach and interact with. Then an incredible transformation took place in the author's life. Roughly thirteen years into the author's professional career his fear of the unknown and unfamiliar cultures was miraculously removed from him. Shortly after his staunch commitment to advance planning of trip details was eradicated little by little. Following the removal of fear of the unknown from the author's persona he was time and again drawn into experiences falling further and further outside his previous comfort zone. Over time the author was increasingly blessed with amazing new friendships overseas wonderful ties with families abroad and incredible faith sharing opportunities in foreign lands independent travels that have taken him to nearly ninety countries worldwide. Ron's amazing interactional experiences were regularly intertwined with stunning events most would describe as unpredictable inconceivable or even impossible and virtually always unforeseeable. Hence the title of this book A Stunning World of Faith Family and Friendship and the Unforeseeable. In many instances the experiences described in these pages might appear to be grossly exaggerated or even fabricated. Hence the inclusion of numerous photos documenting the stunning truth.
