Gospel Riffs God Would Love To Hear for Piano/Keyboards Andrew D. Gordon, Gospel Riffs God Would Love To Hear for Piano Keyboards by Andrew Gordon is a compendium of 33 Contemporary Gospel riffs for piano and keyboard players to learn the art of Gospel stylings There are also arrangements of some traditional Gospel songs including Amazing Grace and When The Saints Go Marching In showing how to incorporate the riffs in the book into these well known Gospel songs Play in the styles of Ray Charles Dr John Billy Preston Leon Russell and Andre Crouch and see how Blues Jazz and other contemporary styles are associated with the Gospel sound Customer Comment About This Book Gospel Riffs God Would Love To Hear I love Gospel music and so far with Andrew Gordon's books I haven't been disappointed This book was no exception And even though I thought Andrew couldn't have gotten any better in his books he did The book finishes with two songs When The Saints Go Marching In and Amazing Grace that provide of understanding of how to create an arrangement from just chords and a melody using techniques from the books riffs Wow this music instruction at its best for a very very reasonable price Don't waste your money on anything else I bought this book a few months ago and it really does keep you learning I always want to learn the next song I would definitely recommend this book to anyone who has played 5 years or more It might be a while until you can play some of the songs up to speed but it is well worth the work Guide to the Tuba Repertoire, Second Edition R. Lowry,2012-09-01 Promoting the idea of sermon as narrative Eugene Lowry s first book The Homiletical Plot became one of the most influential preaching books of the latter part of the 20th century While the sermon as narrative has become conventional preaching wisdom it is largely misunderstood Sermons are by definition narratives and as such they have plots At the same time the sermon is not a story While similar in many ways narratives and stories are distinct Therefore to think of narrative preaching as merely one of many homiletical styles is to misunderstand and reduce the nature of the sermon The sermon is more than just an option for the preacher rather it is by definition a narrative because it happens in time not in space This changes everything because the sermon ceases to be something a preacher constructs like a thesis or even a painting Instead it is more like a piece of music something a preacher plays within intuitively to a constant beat time after time week after week In light of this revelation what are new strategic aims for sermon preparation and delivery Premier Piano Course: Theory
