Wood, 2018-06-05 This collection of essays by twenty one distinguished American historians reflects on a peculiarly American way of imagining the past At a time when history writing has changed dramatically the authors discuss the birth and evolution of historiography in this country from its origins in the late nineteenth century through its present more cosmopolitan character In the book s first part concerning recent historiography are chapters on exceptionalism gender economic history social theory race and immigration and multiculturalism Authors are Daniel Rodgers Linda Kerber Naomi Lamoreaux Dorothy Ross Thomas Holt and Philip Gleason The three American centuries are discussed in the second part with chapters by Gordon Wood George Fredrickson and James Patterson The third part is a chronological survey of non American histories including that of Western civilization ancient history the middle ages early modern and modern Europe Russia and Asia Contributors are Eugen Weber Richard Saller Gabrielle Spiegel Anthony Molho Philip Benedict Richard Kagan Keith Baker Joseph Zizak Volker Berghahn Charles Maier Martin Malia and Carol Gluck Together these scholars reveal the unique perspective American historians have brought to the past of their own nation as well as that of the world Formerly writing from a conviction that America had a singular destiny American historians have gradually come to share viewpoints of historians in other countries about which they write The result is the virtual disappearance of what was a distinctive American voice That voice is the subject of this book The Cambridge History of American Literature: Volume 8, Poetry and Criticism, 1940-1995 Sacvan Bercovitch, Cyrus R. Rethinking America's Past Robert Cohen, Sonia E. Murrow, 2021-11-01 No introductory work of American history has had more influence over the past forty years than Howard Zinn s A People s History of the United States which since its publication in 1980 has sold more than three million copies Zinn s iconoclastic critique of American militarism racism and capitalism has drawn bitter criticism from the Right most recently from President Donald Trump who at his White House Conference on American History in 2020 denounced Zinn as a Left propagandist and accused teachers aligned with Zinn of indoctrinating students to hate America and be ashamed of its history Rethinking America s Past is the first work to use archival and classroom evidence to assess the impact that Zinn s classic work has had on historical teaching and learning and on American culture This evidence refutes Trump s charges showing that rather than indoctrinating students Zinn s book has been used by teachers to have students debate and rethink conventional versions of American history Rethinking America s Past also explores the ways Zinn s work fostered deeper more critical renderings of the American past in movies and on stage and television and traces the origins and assesses the strengths and weaknesses of A People s History in light of more recent historical scholarship Bulletin of New Books, No.-- ,1869 American Physical Education Review ,1925 Includes abstracts of magazine articles and Book reviews
