Smashing the Liquor Machine Mark Lawrence Schrad, 2021 When most people think of the prohibition era they think of speakeasies gin runners and backwoods fundamentalists railing about the ills of strong drink In other words in the popular imagination it is a peculiarly American event Yet as Mark Lawrence Schrad shows in Smashing the Liquor Machine the conventional scholarship on prohibition is extremely misleading for a simple reason American prohibition was just one piece of a global wave of prohibition laws that occurred around the same time Schrad s counterintuitive global history of prohibition looks at the anti alcohol movement around the globe through the experiences of pro temperance leaders like Thomas Masaryk founder of Czechoslovakia Vladimir Lenin Leo Tolstoy and anti colonial activists in India Schrad argues that temperance wasn t American exceptionalism at all but rather one of the most broad based and successful transnational social movements of the modern era In fact Schrad offers a fundamental re appraisal of this colorful era to reveal that temperance forces frequently aligned with progressivism social justice liberal self determination democratic socialism labor rights women s rights and indigenous rights By placing the temperance movement in a deep global context he forces us to fundamentally rethink all that we think we know about the movement Rather than a motley collection of puritanical American evangelicals the global temperance movement advocated communal self protection against the corrupt and predatory liquor machine that had become exceedingly rich off the misery and addictions of the poor around the world from the slums of South Asia to central Europe to the Indian reservations of the American west Unlike many traditional dry histories Smashing the Liquor Machine gives voice to minority and subaltern figures who resisted the global liquor industry and further highlights that the impulses that led to the temperance movement were far more progressive and variegated than American readers have been led to believe
