Meyer,1994 Gathers the texts of ancient Coptic rituals including spells curses invocations baptisms magical amulets and prayers Magic and Ritual in the Ancient World Paul Allan Mirecki,Marvin W. Meyer,2002 This volume contains a series of provocative essays that explore expressions of magic and ritual power in the ancient world The strength of the present volume lies in the breadth of scholarly approaches represented The book begins with several papyrological studies presenting important new texts in Greek and Coptic continuing with essays focussing on taxonomy and definition The concluding essays apply contemporary theories to analyses of specific test cases in a broad variety of ancient Mediterranean cultures Paul Mirecki Th D 1986 in Religious Studies Harvard Divinity School is Associate Professor of Religious Studies at the University of Kansas Marvin Meyer Ph D 1979 in Religion Claremont Graduate School is Professor of Religion at Chapman University Orange California and Director of the Coptic Magical Texts Project of the Institute for Antiquity and Christianity The Concepts of the Divine in the Greek Magical Papyri Eleni Pachoumi,2017-05-05 Eleni Pachoumi looks at the concepts of the divine in the Greek magical papyri by way of a careful and detailed analysis of ritual practices and spells Her aim is to uncover the underlying religious philosophical and mystical parallelisms and influences on the Greek magical papyri She starts by examining the religious and philosophical concept of the personal daimon and the union of the individual with his personal daimon through the magico theurgic ritual of systasis She then goes on to analyze the religious concept of paredros as the divine assistant and the various relationships between paredros the divine and the individual To round off she studies the concept of the divine through the manifold religious and philosophical assimilations mainly between Greek Egyptian Hellenized gods and divine abstract concepts of Jewish origins Rituals in Early Christianity ,2020-10-12 Based on the paradigmatic shift in both liturgical and ritual studies this multidisciplinary volume presents a collection of case studies on rituals in the early Christian world After a methodological discussion of the new paradigm it shows how emblematic Christian rituals were influenced by their Greco Roman and Jewish contexts undergoing multiple transformations while themselves affecting developments both within and outside Christianity Notably parallel traditions in Judaism and Islam are included in the discussion highlighting the importance of ongoing reception history Focusing on the dynamic character of rituals the new perspectives on ritual traditions pursued here relate to the expanding source material both textual and material as well as the development of recent interdisciplinary approaches including the cognitive science of religion Drawing Spirit Jay Johnston,Iain Gardner,2022-12-05 A pioneering interdisciplinary study of the art production and social functions of Late Antique ritual artefacts Utilising case studies from the Graeco Egyptian magical papyri and the Heidelberg archive it establishes new approaches provides a holistic understanding of the multi sensory aspects of ritual practice and explores the transmission of knowledge traditions across faiths A Century of James Frazer's The Golden

The Early Enoch Literature Gabriele Boccaccini, Collins, 2007-12-01 In recent years there has been a lively debate about the early Enoch literature and its place in Judaism This volume is intended to represent that debate by juxtaposing pairs of articles on several key issues the textual evidence the relationship to the Torah the calendar the relation to wisdom the relation to the temple the sociological setting and the relation to the Dead Sea Scrolls

It is not the intention of the editors to impose a consensus but rather to stimulate discussion by bringing together divergent viewpoints The book should be a useful textbook not only on the Enoch literature and apocalypticism but more generally on Second Temple Judaism

Text and Artifact in the Religions of Mediterranean Antiquity Stephen G. Wilson,Michel Desjardins,2006-01-01 Can archaeological remains be made to speak when brought into conjunction with texts Can written remains on stone or papyrus shed light on the parables of Jesus or on the Jewish view of afterlife What are the limits to the use of artifactual data and when is the value overstated Text and Artifact addresses the complex and intriguing issue of how primary religious texts from the ancient Mediterranean world are illuminated by and in turn illuminate the ever increasing amount of artifactual evidence available from the surrounding world The book honours Peter Richardson and the first two chapters offer appreciations of this scholarship and teaching The remaining chapters focus on early Christianity late antique Judaism and topics germane to the Roman world at large Many of the essays relate to features of Jewish life the epigraphic evidence for gentile converts to Judaism or for Jewish defectors ancient accounts of the Essenes or of the siege of Masada and the material context of the first great rabbinic work the Mishnah Other essays connect early Christian texts with the social and cultural realia of their day modes of travel notions of gender patronage and benefaction the relation of tenants and owners or reflect on the aesthetics of Christian architecture and the relation between building and ritual in Constantinian churches One study relates the writing of the famous novelist Apuleius to a household mithraeum in Ostia while another explores the changing appropriation of religious realia as the Roman world became Christian These wide ranging and original studies demonstrate clearly that texts and artifacts can be mutually supportive Equally they point to ways in which artifacts no less than texts are inherently ambiguous and teach us to be cautious in our conclusions

Officina Magica Shaul Shaked,2021-10-25 This book discusses various aspects of the theory and practice of magic in antique cultures around the Mediterranean While some of its contributors address problems of methodology of research into magic and the definition of magic others deal with specific historical and textual issues Although a major focus is on Jewish texts ranging from antiquity to the medieval period the book also includes studies of several magical texts from ancient Mesopotamia and their impact on later magical practice and studies of Greek and Zoroastrian texts and artifacts The approaches thus range from the examination of textual or visual sources to theoretical issues such as the history of research and the definition of magic Envisioning Magic Peter Schäfer,Hans Kippenberg,2018-09-24 This collection of twelve articles presents a selection of papers delivered in the course of a seminar 1994 95 and its concluding international symposium at the Institute for Advanced Study in Princeton The common theme is the interrelation between magic and religion focussing particularly on the Mediterranean world in Antiquity Egyptian Graeco Roman and Jewish beliefs and customs but also treating the early modern period in Northern Europe the Netherlands and Germany as well as offering more general reflections on elements of magic in language and Jewish mysticism The volume is characterized by an interdisciplinary approach and the use of varied methodologies emphasizing the dynamic nature of the often contradictory forces shaping religious beliefs and practices while dismissing the idea of a linear development from magic to religion or vice versa The contributors are outstanding scholars in their fields Ancient Medieval and Modern History Religious Studies Jewish Studies Classical Studies Early Christianity Islamic Studies Anthropology Egyptology and Comparative Literature Without a doubt this re evaluation of a fascinating age old subject will stimulate scholarly discussion and appeal to educated non specialist readers as well Studies in the Syriac Magical Traditions Marco Moriggi,Siam Bhayro,2021-10-25 The study of the Syriac magical traditions has largely been marginalised within Syriac studies with the earliest treatments displaying a disparaging attitude towards both the culture and its magical practices Despite significant progress in more recent scholarship in respect of the culture its magical practices and their associated literatures remain on the margins of the scholarly imagination This volume aims to open a discussion on the history of the field to evaluate how things have progressed and to suggest a fruitful way forward In doing so this volume demonstrates the incredible riches contained within the Syriac magical traditions and the necessity of their study Christians Shaping Identity from the Roman Empire to Byzantium Geoffrey Dunn,Wendy Mayer,2015-07-14 The essays collected in Christians Shaping Identity celebrate Pauline Allen s significant contribution to early Christian late antique and Byzantine studies especially concerning bishops heresy orthodoxy and christology Covering the period from earliest Christianity to middle Byzantium the first eighteen essays explore the varied ways in which Christians constructed their own identity and that of the society around them A final four essays explore the same theme within Roman Catholicism and oriental Christianity in the late 19th to 21st centuries with particular attention to the subtle relationships between the shaping of the early Christian past and the moulding of Christian identity today Among the many leading scholars represented are Averil Cameron and Elizabeth A Clark Heavenly Tablets Lynn LiDonnici,Andrea Lieber,2007-06-30 This volume brings together a wide range of international scholars of Ancient Judaism in celebration of the career of Betsy Halpern Amaru The essays in the first section Interpreting Ritual Texts examine Jewish ritual praxis in late antiquity highlighting the ways in which text and ritual intersect in the process of interpretation Mapping Diaspora Identities asks how Diaspora communities came to understand the Bible's preoccupation with land and how land was used to figure ancient authors' depictions of center and margin in drawing the boundaries of Jewish communities and of Jewish identity Finally Rewriting Tradition explores rewriting of biblical stories in Hellenistic and later Jewish sources and the ways that authors work through the tradition to reflect their current realities and their hopes for the future

The Exorcism Stories in Luke-Acts Todd Klutz, 2004-06-24 This 2004 book in English integrates detailed literary criticism of the exorcism stories in Luke Acts with wide ranging comparative study of ancient sources on demonology spirit affliction and exorcistic healing Methods from systemic functional linguistics and critical theory are explained and then applied to each story Careful focus is placed on each narrative's linguistic functions and also on relevant aspects of its literary co text and the wider context of culture Implications of the analysis for the new perspective on Luke Acts especially the implied author's relationship with Judaism are explored in relation to the Lukan stories original context of reception Largely neglected interfaces between Luke's narrative representation of exorcism and emerging academic discourse about religious experience shamanism health care in antiquity ritual performance and ancient Jewish systems of impurity are probed in ways that shed fresh light on this supremely alien part of the Lukan writings

Theology as History, History as Theology Scott Shauf, 2012-02-13 This monograph explores the theology of the Acts of the Apostles while taking seriously the status of the writing as ancient historiography What does it mean to speak of theology in a historiographical work How can this theology be apprehended What does this theology have to do with the overall character of the writing and with how the writing functioned for its original audience Acts 19 is both case study and source to generate the answers
