

Extract 2 Grade A response

The entry of Lady Macbeth interrupts her husband's soliloquy. The word 'tells' is left unaltered although the meaning is clear at this point of the play Macbeth is clearly presenting to the audience the concept that 'vaulting ambition' may well bring dangers. The interruption leads to a series of fractured postnominals as Shakespeare creates tension. This is heightened both by the way questions are answered with others to create a sense of confusion and also the way in which Duncan is referred to as 'he', showing how both characters prefer euphemism to clear statements. The questions are ended by Macbeth's statement 'He will proceed no further in this business'. Again 'business' is a euphemism. Macbeth also uses 'us'. This may suggest that he believes that he and his wife are joint conspirators in the murder and are a bonded team, yet it may also suggest that Macbeth has begun to imitate Duncan's use of 'the royal us'. Duncan has spoken of 'our grain towards him' in the previous scene. These have become 'golden opinions from all sorts of people'. Macbeth believes himself to be universally admired and that being held in high esteem is very important to him. Some people, for example his wife, might see that as a form of weakness.

- This is a Grade A response.

Unit 4 Examination

If you take Unit 4 in your AQA English Literature course then you will answer a question on a Shakespeare play in an examination. Your answer is worth 20 per cent of your total Literature mark and you will need to spend about 40 minutes on this question.

The Shakespeare question will always have two parts. Each is worth ten per cent of your total mark so you must spend equal time on them.

- Part (a) of each question will ask you to write about a specific extract that is printed in the exam paper. This extract may be a monologue (spoken by one character) or a part of a scene where two or more characters are talking.
- Part (b) of each question will ask you to write about the same topic but relating to a different part of the play (there will not be a printed extract in the exam paper to refer to).

SAMPLE EXAMINATION QUESTIONS AND RESPONSES

- Part (a) How does Shakespeare show Lady Macbeth's thoughts and feelings in the extract below?
- Part (b) How does Shakespeare show Lady Macbeth's feelings in a different part of the play?

Lady Macbeth: The taven himself is hoarse

To cry, "Hold, hold!"
(see page 39 lines 37–53 for full quotation)

Examiner's tip

The first part of each question asks 'How does Shakespeare . . . ?' The 'how' is important. It means you must consider Shakespeare's use of language, referring to specific words and phrases and the effects these create.
