Reading Cultural Representations of the Double Diaspora Maya Parmar, 2019-08-08 Reading Cultural Representations of the Double Diaspora Britain East Africa Gujarat is the first detailed study of the cultural life and representations of the prolific twice displaced Gujarati East African diaspora in contemporary Britain An exceptional community of people this diaspora is disproportionately successful and influential in resettlement both in East Africa and Britain Often showcased as an example of migrant achievement their accomplishments are paradoxically underpinned by legacies of trauma and deracination The diaspora despite its economic success and considerable upward social mobility in Britain has until now been overlooked within critical literary and postcolonial studies for a number of reasons This book attends to that gap Parmar uniquely investigates what it is to be not just from India but too Africa how identity forms within as the study coins the double diaspora Parmar focuses on cultural representation post twice migration via an interdisciplinary methodology offering new contributions to debates within diaspora studies In doing so the book examines a range of cultures produced amongst or about the diaspora including literary representations culinary dance and sartorial practices as well as visual materials

Food, Cuisine, and Cultural Competency for Culinary, Hospitality, and Nutrition Professionals Sari Edelstein, 2011 Food Cuisine and Cultural Competency for Culinary Hospitality and Nutrition Professionals comprehensively covers unique food traditions as they apply to health The text explores the critical importance of cultural sensitivity and competency in today's work setting addresses health literacy issues of diverse client bases and helps readers identify customer communication techniques that enable professionals to establish trust with clients of ethnicity not their own Written and peer reviewed by experts in the culture discussed each chapter in this groundbreaking text covers a distinct region or culture and discusses the various contexts that contribute to nutrition and health lifestyles eating patterns ethnic foods menu planning communication verbal and non verbal and more This book is consistent with The American Dietetic Association's Cultural Competence Strategic Plan

Globalization and Sense-Making Practices Simi Malhotra, Zahra Rizvi, Shraddha A. Singh, 2023-09-11 This book presents a critical analysis of sense making practices through an exploration of acoustic creative and artistic spaces It studies how local cultures of sight hearing smell taste and touch are impacted by global discourses and media such as television popular music digital media and literature The authors look at sense making practices and spatial discourses through an interconnected discussion on thought and experience that seeks to present a multidimensional cartography of the global the local and the glocal to closely analyze the phenomenon of globalization The volume is an investigation of the possibilities of alternate sustainable modes of being and existing in a world which requires a unified ethical biopolitical worldview that challenges the disparity of its fragments while speculating on their synesthetic conditionality A unique contribution the book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of English literature media studies cultural studies literary cultures post colonial studies globalization studies philosophy critical theory sociology and social anthropology
