Answering Interview Questions Uw Milwaukee:

Conditionally Accepted Eric Joy Denise, Bertin M. Louis, 2024-04-02 In 2013 Eric Joy Denise started Conditionally Accepted as a freestanding blog to serve as an online space for scholars on the margins of academe As its popularity utility and contributors grew it became an advice column for Inside Higher Ed which has over 3.5 million readers in 2016 Subsequent editors including current editor Bertin M. Louis have helped the platform continue to thrive Conditionally Accepted has a robust archive and this edited collection seeks to build on that archive by bringing together BIPOC authors of twelve original full length essays that allow for more in depth discussions of some of the most popular and compelling issues alongside eight posts originally published on the Conditionally Accepted blog Denise and Louis bring together this collaboration as a reflection of the spirit of the blog and to advocate for and mentor scholars of color amplify the voices of marginalized scholars with various intersecting identities and critique diversity rhetoric in the absence of radical transformation in academia These personal narratives speak to institutional betrayals while highlighting our agency sharing stories of surviving within treacherous terrain and advice for readers to successfully navigate oppressive academic institutions They provide guidance for marginalized and privileged scholars alike to transform academia In each chapter authors share candid and vulnerable reflections on their experiences with injustice connect their experiences with systemic issues in the academy and leave readers with some concrete wisdom or advice
