Job Interview Derrick Foresight, 2020-08-08 This is a 2 book combo which has the following titles: Book 1: Are you nervous about your job interview? Do you have the feeling that you are not prepared to face an invasive number of questions about your accomplishments and career choices? Well, have no fear, my friend. You are at the right address. This book can guide you along. Topics that will be discussed in this book include how to make a lasting first impression, asking specific questions about your motivation, how to dress, what to bring, how to react on the phone if applicable, how to show your interviewer that you are listening and interacting, etc. Book 2: When it comes to job interviews, it would surprise you how many people don't have a clue what to do. They think if they just act like themselves, nothing wrong with that, all else will just happen. That's not how it works. The people who are most prepared usually stand the highest chance to make a good impression on the interviewer. Aside from questions like "tell me about yourself" or "how would you describe yourself," they will look for competent employees who know how to sell their skillset with confidence. They want to know about your weaknesses and if those weaknesses will create any problems in their company. So how will you do in your next job interview? Well, it's up to you. But the right information, such as the details you can find in this guide, can certainly help. Manage Your Job Search Johanna Rothman, 2015-08-13 A job search is an emergent project. How do you handle an emergent project? By creating a system that allows for serendipity and flexibility: personal kanban and one week timeboxes. Once you have a system, you can use the tips in Part 2 to prepare for your job search: choose your career, write your resume, prepare for your interviews, and decide how you will decide on an offer. In Part 3, you'll learn how to network without feeling slimy. You'll learn to build your target network, where to look for the jobs that you need, and how to spot the warning signs of a job that organizations might no longer need. There are many traps for unsuspecting job hunters, so Part 4 has a section on traps to avoid and tips to try. If you're in special circumstances, such as being a new grad in a career transition or over 50, then Part 5 is for you. Even if you've been diligent, any job search can take more than three months. Part 6 addresses your feelings and how to persevere when your search
