Fast-Forward Family Elinor Ochs, Tamar Kremer-Sadlik, 2013-03-01 Called the most unusually voyeuristic anthropology study ever conducted by the New York Times this groundbreaking book provides an unprecedented glimpse into modern day American families In a study by the UCLA Sloan Center on Everyday Lives and Families researchers tracked the daily lives of 32 dualworker middle class Los Angeles families between 2001 and 2004 The results are startling and enlightening Fast Forward Family shines light on a variety of issues that face American families the differing stress levels among parents the problem of excessive clutter in the American home the importance and decline of the family meal the vanishing boundaries that once separated work and home life and the challenges for parents as they try to reconcile ideals regarding what it means to be a good parent a good worker and a good spouse Though there are also moments of connection affection and care it's evident that life for 21st century working parents is frenetic with extended work hours children's activities chores meals to prepare errands to run and bills to pay

Mariana's Letters Mariana de Saint Phalle,2010-11-11

Mariana s Letter is a cookbook written as you would write a note to a friend This book comes from the many newsletters I wrote over the years The recipes come from many sources but are mainly French and American I have tried to stay away from recipes that have too many or hard to find ingredients or require too much to be done at the last minute Recipes are often accompanied by stories true or fictional You do not have to be a cook to enjoy reading this book only to enjoy the thought of a good meal and listening to a good story I have always followed the rule that if one can not taste the recipe by reading it it is better to discard it for one that tastes good in your head I have spent some time in France as well as Washington D C New York City and the Rangeley Lakes of Northwestern Maine and I come from a family of writers who loved to cook and tell stories
