

A Framework for Safe and Successful Schools

Executive Summary

This joint statement provides a framework supported by education for increasing school safety and increasing access to mental health supports for children and youth. Efforts to improve school climate, culture, and learning are best integrated endeavors. They must be designed, funded, and implemented as a comprehensive effort with approaches that facilitate interdisciplinary collaboration and build on a multifaceted system of supports. We commit again to working jointly and proactively toward solutions, such as setting school personnel, district policy leaders to support the following guidance to enact policies that will keep America's schools as safe as and support our children over the long term.

POLICY RECOMMENDATIONS TO SUPPORT EFFECTIVE SCHOOL SAFETY

1. Allow for flexible flexible use of funding streams to address mental health services.
2. Improve staffing ratios to allow for the delivery of a full range of services and effective school-community partnerships.
3. Develop evidence-based standards for district-level policies to promote effective school discipline and positive behavior.
4. Fund continuous and comprehensive crisis and emergency preparedness, response, and recovery planning and training that uses evidence-based models.
5. Provide resources for inter- and intra-agency collaboration, and
6. Support multifaceted systems of support (MTSS).

BEST PRACTICES FOR CREATING SAFE AND SUCCESSFUL SCHOOLS

1. Fully integrate learning supports (e.g., behavioral, mental health, and social services), instruction, and school management within a comprehensive, coherent approach that facilitates multifaceted interdisciplinary collaboration.
2. Implement multifaceted systems of support (MTSS) that encompass prevention, wellness promotion, and intervention that increase with intensity based on student level, and that promote close school-community collaboration.
3. Improve access to school-based mental health supports by ensuring adequate staffing levels in terms of school-employed mental health professionals who are trained to deliver prevention and intervention services and the learning process and to help integrate services provided through school-community partnerships into existing school initiatives.
4. Through the ongoing positive climate and safety efforts with crisis prevention, preparedness, response, and recovery to ensure that crisis training and plans: (a) are relevant to the school context, (b) minimize learning, (c) make maximum use of existing staff resources, (d) facilitate effective crisis assessment, and (e) are consistently reviewed and practiced.
