Matthew Terrill, 2014-04-28 Why is it such a struggle for us to surrender everything to God What does surrendering to God even look like and how are we supposed to do it Why is it so hard for us to live the life that Jesus died to give us Is life really supposed to be one constant struggle after another One of the hardest things to do in life is to let go giving God everything and never looking back Laying it all down never picking it up is the only way we can walk through this dark unfair world shinning and burning brightly for Jesus Wanting control over our lives is the struggle that many Christians face and the turmoil of that fight is constantly lurking deep in our hearts For many know what to do but few actually do it surrender When a person holds onto frustration bitterness and the injustices of life their pain slowly evolves into chains that hold him down disabling him to walk through life with peace love joy and compassion The only way to truly live is to die to our selfish nature every day and cast all of our burdens at the feet of Jesus Completely Surrendered

Marina Oshana, 2006. Challenging many of the currently accepted conceptions of autonomy and of how it is valued, Oshana develops a social relational account of autonomy that is constituted by a person's relations with others and by the absence of certain social relations. She denies that command over one's motives and the freedom to realize one's will are sufficient to secure the kind of command over one's life that autonomy requires and argues against psychological, procedural, and content-neutral accounts of autonomy.
