A Guide To Creating A Book Of Soul Wisdom:

An a to Z of Emotional Freedom Caroline Anson, 2007-08-20 The intention of this book is to help you claim back the life of personal respect integrity and honour you were always destined to live This book is aimed at anyone who has a dream inside waiting to break out but is imprisoned by their personal history It does not aim to provide the answers but hopes instead to provoke you into asking the right questions about your life and how you really want to live it The rest is up to you This book is part of a series of four which are defined as living books in other words as readers read and learn and grow and feedback to us we want to evidence that learning and growing so maybe other peoples learning and growing can acquire compassion and wisdom about their own and others lives less painfully As the authors of this book we have learned certain incontrovertible truths the most important one being that we are all ultimately responsible for our own life stories We have the final decision on what story we choose to tell If it is too late to change the chapters that have preceded where we are now we certainly have the power to transform the rest of the story to describe our blooming Contained within these pages and the pages of the other three books comprising the series are some ideas to help you along the way All the words and phrases used throughout the series are intended to be explained within the context of how they are presented If however you do not understand anything you read please ask for an explanation We will be happy to clarify in later editions and via our website updates We can be contacted at feedback@AcornProductions.org or via our website at www.AcornProductions.org Angels in Late

Ancient Christianity Ellen Muehlberger, 2013-03-21 Ellen Muehlberger explores the diverse and inventive ideas Christians held about angels in late antiquity During the fourth and fifth centuries Christians began experimenting with new modes of piety adapting longstanding forms of public authority to Christian leadership and advancing novel ways of cultivating body and mind to further the progress of individual Christians Muehlberger argues that in practicing these new modes of piety Christians developed new ways of thinking about angels The book begins with a detailed examination of the two most popular discourses about angels that developed in late antiquity In the first developed by Christians cultivating certain kinds of ascetic practices angels were one type of being among many in a shifting universe and their primary purpose was to guard and to guide Christians In the other articulated by urban Christian leaders in contest with one another angels were morally stable characters described in the emerging canon of Scripture available to enable readers to render Scripture coherent with emerging theological positions Muehlberger goes on to show how these two discourses did not remain isolated in separate spheres of cultivation and contestation but influenced one another and the wider Christian culture She offers in depth analysis of popular biographies written in late antiquity of the community standards of emerging monastic communities and of the training programs developed to prepare Christians to participate in ritual demonstrating that new ideas about angels shaped and directed the formation of the definitive institutions of late antiquity Angels in Late Ancient Christianity is a meticulous and thorough study of early Christian ideas about angels but it also offers a different perspective on late ancient

Christian history arguing that angels were central rather than peripheral to the emergence of Christian institutions and Christian culture in late antiquity

THE VOICE OF THE SILENCE Charles Leadbeater, Annie Besant, This book is merely a record of talks by Mr Charles W Leadbeater and myself on three famous books books small in size but great in contents We both hope that they will prove useful to aspirants and even to those above that stage since the talkers were older than the listeners and had more experience in the life of discipleship The talks were not given at one place only we chatted to our friends at different times and places chiefly at Adyar London and Sydney A vast quantity of notes were taken by the listeners All that were available of these were collected and arranged They were then condensed and repetitions were eliminated Unhappily there were found to be very few notes on The Voice of the Silence Fragment I so we have utilized notes made at a class held by our good colleague Mr Ernest Wood in Sydney and incorporated these into Bishop Leadbeater's talks in that section No notes of my own talks on this book were available though I have spoken much upon it those talks are not recoverable None of these talks have been published before except some of Bishop Leadbeater's addresses to selected students on At the Feet of the Master A book entitled Talks on At the Feet of the Master was published a few years ago containing imperfect reports of some of these talks of his That book will not be reprinted the essential material in it finds its place here carefully condensed and edited May this book help some of our younger brothers to understand more of these priceless teachings The more they are studied and lived the more will be found in them Annie Besant
