A History Of The World In Objects:

A History of the World in 100 Objects Neil MacGregor, 2011 This book takes a dramatically original approach to the history of humanity using objects which previous civilisations have left behind them often accidentally as prisms through which we can explore past worlds and the lives of the men and women who lived in them The book's range is enormous It begins with one of the earliest surviving objects made by human hands a chopping tool from the Olduvai gorge in Africa and ends with an object from the 21st century which represents the world we live in today Neil MacGregor's aim is not simply to describe these remarkable things but to show us their significance how a stone pillar tells us about a great Indian emperor preaching tolerance to his people how Spanish pieces of eight tell us about the beginning of a global currency or how an early Victorian tea set tells us about the impact of empire Each chapter immerses the reader in a past civilisation accompanied by an exceptionally well informed guide Seen through this lens history is a kaleidoscope shifting interconnected constantly surprising and shaping our world today in ways that most of us have never imagined An intellectual and visual feast it is one of the most engrossing and unusual history books published in years

A History of the World in 100 Objects Mark Kilfoyle, 2010 A History of Sport in Europe in 100 Objects Daphné Bolz, Michael Krüger, 2023-04-27 Modern sport originated in Europe During the age of Enlightenment gymnastics and athletics from Antiquity were rediscovered and changed into new cultural and educational forms which shaped both the body and the mind The industrialisation of Britain and Europe eventually introduced organisational patterns that gave sport not only a name but also a new structure This was a distinctive product of European civilisation which spread across the modern world The 100 objects that are collected here are both material objects and forms of communication which explore the transformation and diversity of sports games and physical education in Europe whether for training performing or as part of other forms of celebration or festivity This book is the first attempt to create a kaleidoscopic history of European sport through its rich material culture and emerged from a desire to develop transnational research in sports history 110 authors from 39 countries have participated in a genuinely pan European project introducing the reader to the fascinating range of people institutions and places which made up the world of modern European sport

A History of the World in 100 Objects, 2018 A History of the World in 100 Objects Neil MacGregor, 2011 Traces the stories of one hundred human innovations to explain their pivotal role in shaping civilization from weapons and the domestication of cows to currency and music Handbook of Digital Public History Serge Noiret, Mark Tebeau, Gerben Zaagsma, 2022-04-04 This handbook provides a systematic overview of the present state of international research in digital public history Individual studies by internationally renowned public historians digital humanists and digital historians elucidate central issues in the field and present a critical account of the major public history accomplishments research activities and practices with the public and of their digital context The handbook applies an international and comparative approach looks at the historical development of the field focuses on technical background and the use of specific digital media and tools Furthermore the handbook analyzes connections with local communities and different publics worldwide when engaging in digital activities with the past indicating directions for future research and teaching activities A History of the World's Columbian Exposition Held in Chicago in 1893 Rossiter Johnson,1897

Theatre/Archaeology Mike Pearson,Michael Shanks,2005-07-08 Theatre Archaeology is a provocative challenge to disciplinary practice and intellectual boundaries It brings together radical proposals in both archaeological and performance theory to generate a startlingly original and intriguing methodological framework The Embarrassment of Being Human Benjamin Boysen,2024-12-24 With the message that everything in a sense is alive thus allowing us to join forces with new politico ethical communities stretching across human and nonhuman realms the new materialisms have captivated the minds of many academics artists and intellectuals by stressing that it is time to return to a premodern mindset and discard modernity and its concepts of secularization autonomy and finitude The Embarrassment of Being Human not only demonstrates how these magical materialisms are beset by grave theoretical and practical inconsistencies and self contradictions It also demonstrates how their demand for humans to step down and allow for an emancipation of things qualifies the new materialisms as a metaphysics of neoliberalism that reproduces and fortifies the self contradictions rampant in the current neoliberal hegemony While helping us to gain a comprehensive understanding of the tenets of the eerie ills of our epoch the critique of the new materialisms can furthermore inspire us to appreciate how the exact inversion of the new materialist complex amounts to a revitalization of the modern project A revitalization that is critical to think our epoch differently Scientific History Elena Aronova,2021-04-02 Introduction The quest for scientific history Scientific history and the Russian locale Nikolai Vavilov genogeography and history s past future Julian Huxley s cold wars The UNESCO History of Mankind Cultural and Scientific Development Project Information socialism historical informatics and the markets Epilogue
