

GUIDED AUTOBIOGRAPHY WORKSHOPS:

Write Your Life Story, Leave Your Legacy

JOIN OUR GUIDED AUTOBIOGRAPHY WORKSHOP SERIES, OFFERED BY THE CIPA EDUCATION AND LITERACY FOUNDATION, A 501 (C) (3) NONPROFIT CHARITABLE ORGANIZATION

Have you ever wanted to write your life story but didn't know where to start? Our Guided Autobiography (GAB) workshops are designed to help you unlock your memories and write your most meaningful stories.

No Writing Experience Necessary: You don't need to be a writer to share your story! Our workshops are designed to help anyone create a meaningful narrative of their life.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

- The 4-week writing course meets via zoom for 2 hours, weekly that are designed to help you find your creative muse and hone your writing skills.
- Between classes, you will write a two-page story, inspired by a list of prompts and our weekly discussion.
- Each week you will share what you've written in an encouraging, confidential and appreciative environment.

INTERESTED?

THE WORKSHOP SERIES CONSISTS OF 4 2-HOUR SESSIONS ON THE FOLLOWING DATES FROM 1-3 PM MOUNTAIN TIME: MONDAY, AUG. 5, 12, 19, 26, 2024.

A Legacy Of Experience An Autobiography:

A Legacy of Experience Albert Clement Stasko, 2014-10-17 This is a story about an American living through one of the most interesting periods of our country's history from the horse and buggy age to the technology which led to the moon landing It is about a man without any particular recognized talent not even a hero whom one might say an Also Rana person who always tried not to hurt anyone As with most of my contemporaries I took the bitter with the sweet and the joy with the sorrow and desperately tried to cope with adversity while eschewing all bitterness even when it appeared to be justified To live love laugh and at the same time commiserate with those of us who felt pain was my motto Perhaps I did not contribute to society as much as I had hoped but at least I tried to be a good contributor Maybe my offspring and others will find it fascinating to know just how we lived in the good old days At least they will have a record of how we lived through all the important changes With humbleness and reverence I offer these pages to that end Women, Autobiography, Theory

Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women's autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women's autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers HOW TO WRITE YOUR OWN AUTOBIOGRAPHY DAVID SANDUA, Embark on a journey of self discovery and personal transformation with this book that guides you step by step in the art of writing your own autobiography It is not just a manual it is an invitation to dive into the depths of your life to explore your experiences your triumphs and your failures Discover how to structure your narrative whether chronologically or thematically and how to infuse your unique voice on every page Learn how to engage your readers from the first line and keep their interest throughout your story This book gives you the tools to analyze and reflect on the significant events that have shaped your character and values It also teaches you how to approach sensitive topics with sensitivity and how to balance objectivity with subjectivity in your storytelling But that's not all you'll also find practical advice on editing revising and publishing your work as well as ethical and legal considerations you shouldn't overlook Whether you want to share your story with the world or simply leave a legacy for future generations this book is your ideal companion on this introspective journey Autobiography, Memory and Nationhood in Anglophone Africa David Ekanem Udoinwang, James Tar Tsaaor, 2022-08-25 This book provides an important critical analysis of the autobiographies of nine major leaders of national liberation movements in Africa By examining their self narratives we can better understand how decolonisation unfolded and how activist politicians sought to immortalise their roles for posterity Focusing on the autobiographies of Peter Abrahams Albert Luthuli Ruth First and Nelson Mandela South Africa Nnamdi Azikiwe Nigeria Kenneth Kaunda Zambia George Mwase Malawi Kwame Nkrumah Ghana Maurice Nyagumbo Zimbabwe and Oginga Odinga Kenya the book uncovers the social and cultural forces which galvanized the anti colonial resistance movement in African societies In particular the book explores the disdain for foreign domination economic exploitation and cultural imperialism It delves into themes of African cultural sovereignty before the colonial encounter the disruptive presence of colonialism the nationalist ferment against European imperial domination the achievement of political autonomy by African nation states and the corpus of contradictions which attended postcolonial becoming With important insights on how these key historical figures navigated the process of self determining nationhood in Africa this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature history and politics

Telling the Stories of Life through Guided

Autobiography Groups James E. Birren, Kathryn N. Cochran, 2003-05-22 Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups based on James Birren's 25 years of conducting autobiography groups discusses all the topics an organizer faces while developing a program for adults who want to recall and write down their life histories This book is ideal for adult education programs church groups social workers psychologists gerontologists and others who work with adults who might be interested in exploring recording or sharing their personal histories It helps professionals and trained workshop leaders at community centers senior centers schools and other settings guide group participants in exploring major themes of their lives so that they can organize and write their stories and share them in a group with others on the same journey This exercise is rewarding for adults of any age in a period of transition or with interest in gaining insight from their own stories Personal development and a feeling of connection to other participants and their stories is a natural outcome of this process This book provides background material and detailed lesson plans for those who wish to develop and lead an autobiography group The authors explain the concept of guided autobiography discuss the benefits to the group participants and provide logistical information on how to plan organize and set up a group An appendix provides exercises handouts and suggested adaptations for specific groups The book also explains a systematic method of priming memories including the history of family and of one's life work the role of money health and the body and ideas about death At a time when rapid change has created a widespread yearning to write down and exchange personal accounts sharing life stories can reveal a great deal about how we have come to be the persons we are Telling the Stories of Life through Guided Autobiography Groups shows how to organize record and share life experiences through a proven and effective technique
