A Life With A View:

A Life Hidden from View I Walsh, 2022-11-24 A Life Hidden from View is a candid look at my life through my eyes I had a somewhat unconventional childhood living a very secluded mostly in solitude life Going to school wasn't without its dramas Once the other children found out I was illegitimate the bullying started At senior school circumstances led to me being sexually abused When I left school life improved for a while I grew up into a very independent young woman Supporting myself and doing really well at work I do have a somewhat quirky outlook on life and my sense of humour reflects this as you will see sprinkled throughout the pages My feelings of isolation not loneliness has not stopped me doing what I want to do I have travelled alone to various holiday destinations and enjoyed them all I have enjoyed pastimes of dancing and being around horses for most of my adult life I am currently researching to find my dad Although I say I am mostly alone I'm not really I do tend to attract the supernatural and have seen and been in the presence of what some people may call ghosts I don't quite view them like that In my later years at work I was bullied to the extent that I took early retirement to get away from it Being bullied abused and neglected for most of my life has resulted in me having long lasting health issues I want my book to be a help guide to any of my readers who may find themselves in similar situations It is important that you tell someone get the help you need and deal with it so you can move on with your life I hope my book helps Meaning in Life
