A Long Day At The End Of The World:

Finding the Way to 'Long Day's Journey Into Night' William Davies King, 2024-09-03 Eugene O'Neill wrote his most enduring and important plays after he won international acclaim as the first and only American playwright to receive the Nobel Prize in Literature in 1936. In the midst of the Great Depression with his health failing and spirits sunk, he and his third wife, former actress Carlotta Monterey, moved to California to escape the materialism and commercialism of a declining West, and they built a new home called Tao House. A reasonably good translation of tao is the way, and in this house, which was largely the creation of Carlotta, he found the way to his most famous play, Long Day's Journey Into Night. As an unusually explicit autobiographical drama, this play returns to 1912, the outset of O'Neill's writing career when he confronted tragedy in his family story and found a way to dramatize his mother, father, brother, and himself in a way that has resonated with audiences since its publication and production in 1956. But this book argues that the play originates as much in the moment of its creation, 1939-1941, in the family relationships, the historical circumstances, and the fact that this work would represent a moment of closure of his great career. Key to this heroic story of creation is the intervention of his wife Carlotta, whose diaries enable a day-to-day observation of how the play was written. She was the driving force behind the design of Tao House, and she managed the rhythms and patterns of life within its architecture. It was her masterpiece, just as Long Day's Journey was his. This book develops a close reading of their house and marriage and also uses many of O'Neill's previous plays to illuminate the breakthrough of Long Day's Journey. This book is the most granular and at the same time the most far-reaching inquiry into how this quintessential play was written and almost not written and how it came into the world. The Sacred Theory of the Earth ... By Bishop Burnett [or Rather by Thomas Burnet]. Together with Copious Notes on the Wonders of Nature, Etc. [With Plates.] Thomas BURNET (Master of the Charter House.), 1816 Stranger Sun Apocalypse Boxed Set (complete series) Blake Pitcher, 2018-01-01 The sun has turned strange. Trapped between chaos and the rise of a mysterious fanatical rancher known as the White Texan, one man seeks to reunite with his wife. The complete Stranger Sun Boxed Set includes Letters from the Apocalypse, the sequel Return from the Apocalypse, and the novella The Young Hyenas featuring Chelsey Dixie. What readers are saying: A real page-turner. Not your typical apocalypse story. Couldn't put it down. A thoroughly enjoyable ride through different lands, different lives, and different dreams. All around excellent. The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age Jesse A. Hoover, 2018 The Donatist Church in an Apocalyptic Age examines an apocalypse that never happened, seen through the eyes of a dissident church that no longer exists. Jesse A. Hoover considers Donatists, members of an ecclesiastical communion that for a brief moment formed the majority church in Roman North Africa, modern Tunisia, Algeria, and Libya, before fading away sometime between the fifth and seventh centuries. Hoover studies how Donatists perceived the end of the world to offer a glimpse into the inner life of the dissident communion, what it valued, whom it feared, and how it defined its place in history while on the cusp of history's end. By recovering these appeals to apocalyptic themes in surviving Donatist writings this study uncovers a significant element within the dissident movement's self-perception that has so far gone unexamined. In contrast to previous assessments it argues that such eschatological expectations are not out of sync with the wider world of Latin Christianity in late antiquity and that they functioned as an effective polemical strategy designed to counter their opponents' claim to be the true church in North Africa.

2 Peter and the Apocalypse of Peter: Towards a New Perspective Jörg Frey, Matthijs Dulk, den, Jan van der Watt, 2019-07-15
 In the 2016 Radboud Prestige Lectures published in this volume Jörg Frey develops a new perspective on 2 Peter by arguing that the letter is dependent on the Apocalypse of Peter. Frey argues that reading 2 Peter against the backdrop of the Apocalypse of Peter sheds new light on many longstanding interpretative questions and offers fresh insights into the history of second-century Christianity. Frey's lectures are followed by responses from leading scholars in the field who discuss Frey's proposal in ways both critical and constructive.
