

1.1

For this question, you need to refer to the whole of Source A, together with the whole of Source B.

Compare how the writers convey their different perspectives on the extreme weather conditions.

In your answer, you must:

- compare how different perspectives on the extreme weather conditions
- compare the methods the writers use to convey their different perspectives
- support your responses with evidence from both texts.

(24 marks)

In Source A, the writer factual account written in the 21st century by climber Peter Dickinson and Source B is a diary written in the 19th century by Arthur Minby.

In source A, the writer appears to know a, situation with fear. Dickinson has many feelings of fear towards the storm and we see this especially when he says "The apocalyptic vision kept swirling and twirling towards them". This shows a feeling of real threat and that they feel very insignificantly in amongst such monstrous weather. The word "apocalyptic" is used to suggest the end of the world and it emphasises the power of the storm. It also shows that he feels so threatened and terrified of the storm that he feels he is going to die.

On the other hand, Source B is a far more positive and cheerful. Minby shows himself to be very appreciative of the beauty of the snow and it gives him a sense of happiness. We see this when he says "The landscape" and "ashy". This shows that he thinks that the storm is enhanced by the snow and that it made it a nicer place. The word "picturesque" "ashy" shows us that Minby thinks that the snow looks delicate and it makes everything more clear.

Source A presents Dickinson as being feeling vulnerable towards the storm. He seems very intimidated by the storm and we see this particularly when
