horse training book for the non professional Trainer Training offers one hundred situations a professional horse trainer might face Written specifically for the professional horse trainer this is a compilation of one hundred things I ve learned throughout my over thirty years with horses sixteen plus of them as a pro Some are listed quickly some are placed in greater detail For each entry to paraphrase Mozart I used only as many notes as necessary and point the reader toward further resources when the subject matter threatens to creep beyond the scope of this book This is not meant to outline the only way to do things or to look at things it s simply one hundred quick pieces of advice I d offer a compatriot were I asked Every horse trainer reading this could easily make their own list and given our myriad experiences and disparate backgrounds I doubt we d overlap all that much And there it s that lack of overlap that gives this book both its perspective and value My background beyond horses is in marketing writing and as a long time computer geek Hence the tips contained herein focus to a great extent on those segments of our business Note also that a great deal of the info also circles around special events clinics symposiums talks etc that a pro might offer in large part because this is where so darned many weird things can happen and where much money can be made

American Agriculturist ,1896 The Complete Guide to Endurance Riding and Competition Donna Snyder-Smith,2008-05-05 First Star to the Right and Straight on Till Morning At the 90 mile vet check she sat in the middle of the road crying claiming extreme illness and trying to avoid her nightmarish fears her horse would die of founder or colic or anything The last ten miles of trail stretched forever in her mind black like licorice taffy After a large measure of TLC from her patient and understanding crew she and the gelding were out of the check and on the trail again The entire universe shrank to center on the pair in the moonlight Time stopped and the world faded into nothingness They were running in a small ever changing pocket of existence the rhythm of his hooves the heartbeat of that universe Ribbons and trail appeared before them and lost substance as they moved past For the rider clinging to the saddle there was no thought no pain no emotion only the instinctive drive to chase past each ribbon as it appeared Suddenly her horse jumped sideways eyes and ears frozen forward Awakened from her trance she oriented herself on his suspected woods troll a familiar embankment that meant they were a half mile from home Easing him past the scary object she sent the gelding on clinging to his neck As his soft lope swept them across the finish line she wanted to laugh out loud or cry but was unable to summon the strength for either A few small tears trickled down her cheek the only sign of the enormous pride she felt inside Becky Huffman Endurance rider wife mother of two and student of author Donna Snyder Smith The Howell Equestrian Library The Sunday-school World ,1889
