The segregated city: A Nordic overview Moa Tunström,Shinan Wang,2019-03-28 Issues related to segregation and integration are major responsibilities and challenges for cities and a segregated urban environment can be understood as a symptom of wider social injustices In this brief overview of current research on residential segregation the focus is on structural reasons to segregation This means that it is planning policies and tendencies in socio economic development that are discussed rather than specific social integration measures and projects But there is an obvious arena where these two approaches to segregation meet and that is in the local community and its spaces for social interaction This is important to keep in mind that the integrated city is both a result of strategies and initiatives on a micro scale in the neighbourhood and between individuals and initiatives and development on a macro scale This report is part of a theme on segregation within the Nordic collaboration programme for effective integration and inclusion of refugees and immigrants in the Nordic countries Read more at www.integrationnorden.org

Gendered Migrations and Global Social Reproduction E. Kofman,P. Raghuram,2015-03-24 Eleonore Kofman and Parvati Raghuram argue for the benefits of social reproduction as a lens through which to understand gendered transformations in global migration They highlight the range of sites sectors and skills in which migrants are employed and how migration is both a cause and an outcome of depletion in social reproduction Handbook on the Geographies of Corruption Barney Warf,2018-09-28 The Handbook on the Geographies of Corruption offers a comprehensive overview of how corruption varies across the globe It explores the immense range of corruption among countries and how this reflects levels of wealth the centralization of power colonial legacies and different national cultures Barney Warf presents an original and interdisciplinary collection of chapters from established researchers and leading academics that examine corruption from a spatial perspective The English Professor Margaret R. O'Leary/Dennis S. O'Leary,2016-02-04 Across the span of more than forty years Raphael Dorman O Leary a professor of English rhetoric and English literature taught his students at the University of Kansas to think straight to put sinew into their sentences and to embrace the magnificent literary treasures of their mother tongue The English Professor by authors Margaret R O Leary and Dennis S O Leary offers a narrative of the life work and times of a revered Midwestern university English teacher This memoir narrates how the professor born in 1866 was raised on a Kansas farm in the post bellum era Like his father before him he was committed to a life of learning and teaching His colleagues knew him for his unpretentious exterior honesty and integrity and his flashing anger at cheapness vulgarity pretense and above all charlatanism When Professor O Leary died after a short illness in 1936 his personal effects passed through two generations to his grandson Dennis S O Leary who with his wife Margaret discovered his papers while restoring a family house The trove of material served as the core resource for the compilation of The English Professor It provides insights into the histories of Kansas and the University of Kansas and of Harvard University as well as perspectives on higher education including the teaching of English rhetoric language literature journalism and oratory in the United States Time and Power in Azraq Refugee Camp Melissa Gatter,2023-03-07 WINNER OF THE 2023 ALIXA NAFF PRIZE IN MIGRATION STUDIES The politics and governance of Jordan s Azraq camp for Syrian refugees Azraq refugee camp built in 2014 and host to forty thousand refugees is one of two official humanitarian refugee camps for Syrian refugees in Jordan Time and Power in Azraq Refugee Camp investigates the relationship between time and power in Azraq asking how a politics of time shapes limits or enables everyday life for the displaced and for aid workers Based on ethnographic fieldwork carried out during 2017 2018 the book challenges the perceptions of Azraq as the ideal refugee camp Melissa Gatter argues that the camp operates as a nine to five emergency where mundane bureaucratic procedures serve to sustain a power system in which refugees are socialized to endure a cynical wait both for everyday services and for their return without expectations for a better outcome Time and Power in Azraq Refugee Camp also explores how refugees navigate this system both in the day to day and over years by evaluating various layers of waiting as they affect refugee perceptions of time in the camp not only in the present but the past near future and far future Far from an ideal camp Azraq and its politics of time constitute a cruel reality in which a power system meant to aid refugees is one that suppresses foreclosing futures that it is supposed to preserve Time, Communication and Global Capitalism Wayne Hope,2016-04-08 In this book Wayne Hope analyzes the double relation between time and global capitalism In order to do this he cross relates four epistemes of time epochality time reckoning temporality and coevalness with four materializations of time hegemony conflict crisis and rupture Using this framework allows Hope to argue that global capitalism is epochally distinctive riven by time conflicts prone to recurring crises and vulnerable to collective opposition These critical insights are not easily thematized in a mediated world of real time reflexivity detemporized presentism and denials of coevalness associated with structural exclusions of the poor However the worldwide repercussions of the 2008 financial collapse and the resulting confluence of occupation movements riots protests strike activity and anti austerity activism raises the prospect of a rupture within and beyond global capitalism

Refugees in Extended Exile Jennifer Hyndman, Wenona Giles, 2016-10-04 This book argues that the international refugee regime and its temporary humanitarian interventions have failed Most refugees across the globe live in protracted conditions that extend from years to decades without legal status that allows them to work and establish a home It is contended that they become largely invisible to people based in the global North and cease to remain fully human subjects with access to their political lives Shifting the conversation away from the salient discourse of solutions and technical fixes within state centric international relations the authors recover the subjectivity lost for those stuck in extended exile The book first argues that humanitarian assistance to refugees remains vital to people's survival even after the emergency phase is over It then connects asylum politics in the global North with the intransigence of extended exile in the global South By placing the urgent crises of protracted exile within a broader constellation of power relations both historical and geographical the authors present research and empirical findings gleaned from refugees in Iran Kenya and Canada and from humanitarian and government workers Each chapter reveals patterns of power circulating through the colonial present Cold War legacies and the global war on terror Seeking to render legible the more quotidian struggles and livelihoods of people who find themselves defined as refugees this book will be of great interest to international humanitarian agencies as well as migration and refugee researchers including scholars in refugee studies and human displacement human security globalization immigration and human rights

Between Church and State James W. Fraser, 2016-09-15 A fully updated second edition of this essential look at the continuing tensions between religion and American public schools Today the ongoing controversy about the place or lack of place of religion in public schools is a burning issue in the United States Prayer at football games creationism in the classroom the teaching of religion and morals and public funding for private religious schools are just a few of the subjects over which people are skirmishing In Between Church and State historian and pastor James W Fraser shows that these battles have been going on for as long as there have been public schools and argues there has never been any consensus about what the separation of church and state means for American society or about the proper relationship between religion and public education Looking at the difficult question of how private issues of faith can be reconciled with the very public nature of schooling Fraser's classic book paints a complex picture of how a multicultural society struggles to take the deep commitments of people of faith into account including people of many different faiths and no faith In this fully updated second edition Fraser tackles the culture wars adding fresh material on current battles over public funding for private religious schools He also addresses the development of the long simmering evolution creationism debate and explores the tensions surrounding a discussion of religion and the accommodation of an increasingly religiously diverse American student body Between Church and State includes new scholarship on the role of Roger Williams and William Penn in developing early American conceptions of religious liberty It traces the modern expansion of Catholic parochial schools and closely examines the passage of the First Amendment changes in American Indian tribal education the place of religion in Booker T Washington and W E B Du Bois s debates about African American schooling and the rapid growth of Jewish day schools among a community previously known for its deep commitment to secular public education

Bullsh*t Comparisons Andrew Brooks,2024-06-06 Bullshit Comparisons will challenge the way you think about rankings charts and other marketing and political tools designed to create odious and dangerous comparisons Is Boris Johnson really like Winston Churchill Are electric cars actually greener than petrol ones Which is the world s most successful university Is Lisbon the new Barcelona Should we compare the achievements of younger and older siblings even when we know it damages their self worth We make comparisons every day but how helpful are they Looking across a dazzling range of situations both familiar and unfamiliar Bullshit Comparisons is a ground breaking examination of the role of comparison in modern society illuminated by examples spanning from the FIFA World Footballer of the year to wine tasting in London hospital care in Sierra Leone and avocado farming in Colombia Challenging us to think critically about the use of comparison through accessible personal and often amusing research Andrew Brooks reveals the uses and abuses of comparisons in a book that isn t like anything else you have read

Scripts of Servitude Beatriz P. Lorente,2017-10-19 This book examines how language is a central resource in transforming migrant women into transnational domestic workers Focusing on the migration of women from the Philippines to Singapore the book unpacks why and how language is embedded in the infrastructure of transnational labor migration that links migrant sending and migrant receiving countries It sheds light on the everyday lives of transnational domestic workers and how they draw on their linguistic repertoires and in particular on English as they cross geographical and social spaces By showing how the transnational mobility of labor is dependent on the selection and performance of particular assemblages of linguistic resources that index migrants as labor and not as people the book provides a powerful lens with which to examine how migration contributes to relationships of inequality and how such inequalities are produced and challenged on the terrain of language

Empires and Colonial Incarceration in the Twentieth Century Philip J. Havik,Helena Pinto Janeiro,Pedro Aires Oliveira,Irene Flunser Pimentel,2021-09-26 This book engages with a controversial issue namely the establishment of penal colonies and concentration camps in imperial spaces which have informed ongoing debates on the repressive practices of colonial rule and popular resistance against it The contributors offer a reassessment of the history of politically motivated incarceration based upon a multi disciplinary perspective in a global imperial setting during the twentieth century The introduction and seven chapters engage with comparative and transnational perspectives on political persecution forced confinement and colonial rule in British French German Belgian and Portuguese dominions in Africa Asia Oceania and Latin America Addressing political incarceration s global imperial dimensions they focus upon the organisation strategies narratives and practices associated with political internment in Africa Angola Tanzania Rhodesia South Africa Latin America French Guyana and the Pacific region New Caledonia Penal legislation policies of convict transport and political imprisonment resettlement prison regimes resistance and liberation struggles counter insurgency prisoner agency and prisons as cultural spaces and of memory are discussed here for different time periods from the mid 1800s to the late twentieth century The chapters build upon the ongoing debate on political incarceration in the empire and the remarkable dynamic scientific research witnessed over the last decades As a result they provide novel insights into the nature of legal systems colonial discourse memory racial segregation and persecution prisoners narratives of practices of punishment and incarceration and human rights abuses in imperial spaces The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of The Journal of Imperial and Commonwealth History The editors have also written an original conclusion to the present volume Global Developments in Public Infrastructure Procurement Darrin Grimsey, Mervyn K. Lewis, 2017-11-24 There is widespread acceptance of the importance of infrastructure but less agreement about how it should be funded and procured While most public infrastructure is still provided in house or by traditional procurement methods with well researched strengths and weaknesses the development of service concession arrangements has seen a greater emphasis on lifecycle costing risk assessment and asset design as featured in a variety of public private partnership PPP delivery models This book examines the various procurement approaches and provides a framework for comparing their advantages and disadvantages Drawing on international experience it considers some of the best and worst examples of PPPs and infrastructure projects generally along with the lessons for improving infrastructure procurement processes Psychological Perspectives on Diversity and Social Development Janak Pandey, Rashmi Kumar, Komilla Thapa, 2019-04-04 This book is a collection of essays covering a range of issues related to socioeconomic inequalities and diversities The authors leading social scientists of diverse nationalities represent varied perspectives The book has essays on multiculturalism social inclusion and exclusion of minorities and other marginalized groups such as low castes linguistic minorities Adivasis tribals persons with disability and unemployed youth The book focuses on some innovative concepts considered necessary to understand the very process and evolution of aspects of social development such as pro sociality authentic responsible self and leadership ideology The book deals with the challenges for achieving social development and societal harmony The book will be a very useful resource for social science scholars and particularly for social and cultural psychologists development professionals and administrators interested in the issues related to social development social diversity and inter group relations The book will also be useful for policy formulation and action
