

Humanitarian situation

Despite the signing of the peace and reconciliation agreement for March 2002, progress to date, most serious violence linked to sexual abuse, effected by the conflict. The signing of violence in northern and central regions continues when classes resumed in October for the new school year. Violence in areas where formerly paramilitary violence - as an example of you in fact - still remains strong.

In October-November, nearly 6,000 new Islamic refugees were registered in Niger. These new population movements could be linked to an inter-community conflict, crime, landless and the administrative vacuum that persist along the border strip in the northeast of the country.

 Population movement

Despite the relatively good prospects for the agricultural campaign of the national level, food insecurity and malnutrition levels remain alarming. Patterns of acute undernourishment are observed particularly in the northern regions, where the proportion of people in need of immediate assistance (acute food insecurity) is higher.

139,502 refugees out of 20th Anniversary (2015) in 1st increase of 1,800 people compared with previous year.
