A Literary History of Early Christianity: The apostolic fathers Charles Thomas Cruttwell, 1893

Early Christianity in Rome Jens Schröter, Konrad Schwarz, 2025-11-03 The volume explores the beginnings of Christianity in Rome the political and religious center of the Roman empire Early Christian writings such as Paul's letters to the Romans the Acts of the Apostles First Clement and the Shepherd of Hermas demonstrate that Rome became an important place for early Christians by the end of the first beginning of the second century In this period one can also detect a early separation of Jewish and Christian communities in Rome In the second century several prominent philosophical teachers came to Rome and taught the Christian message from their respective viewpoints To these belong Marcion Valentinus Justin Martyr and Tatian The diverse interpretations of the Christian message resulted in the formation of different communities e.g. the Marcionites the Valentinians and the main church to which apparently Justin belonged The book also examines the archaeological remains of the early Christians Although the evidence is sparse some things can be said about the burial places of Peter and Paul and about the so called house churches of early Christians Taken together the articles in this volume will advance the discussion about Christianity in Rome in the first three centuries
