Drama Lessons In Action Antoinette Line,1997 Atlas of Egyptian Mummies in the Czech Collections II: Non-Adult Human Mummies Pavel Onderka,Gabriela Vrtalová,2022-01-01 Ancient Egyptian mummies and their funerary equipment are an invaluable source of information not only on the Egyptians perception of death but more importantly on their lives diseases and traumas they suffered from activities they carried out their family relations and more The present volume second in the series of Atlas of Egyptian Mummies in the Czech Collections is dedicated to mummies and funerary containers of non adults aged 15 and younger Two complete mummies twelve isolated parts from ten individuals and six funerary containers were introduced in a detailed catalogue along with their respective provenances and brief excursions into the health and disease of ancient Egyptian children and their funerarytreatment The studied material came from the collections of two divisions of the National Museum in Prague namely the N prstek Museum of Asian African and American Cultures and the Natural History Museum The mummies were examined using non invasive methods and the results were compared to those published in the past The containers two boxes two hampers and two jars represent only a small part of typological repertoire of containers used for the deposition of burials of non adult individuals While the non adult mummies and their isolated parts are without provenience all of the six containers come from modern excavations at well documented cemeteries at Deir el Medina and Abusir Examination by non invasive methods especially computed tomography brought to light several findings including one possible case of traumatic death and one possible case of rickets Information on the use of mummification substances and techniques including the reinforcement of spine were also reported Arabic Dialogues Rachel Mairs,2024-03-04 During the nineteenth century and into the early twentieth century more Europeans visited the Middle East than ever before as tourists archaeologists pilgrims settler colonists and soldiers These visitors engaged with the Arabic language to differing degrees While some were serious scholars of Classical Arabic in the Orientalist mould many did not learn the language at all Between these two extremes lies a neglected group of language learners who wanted to learn enough everyday colloquial Arabic to get by The needs of these learners were met by popular language books which boasted that they could provide an easy route to fluency in a difficult language Arabic Dialogues explores the motivations of Arabic learners and effectiveness of instructional materials principally in Egypt and Palestine by analysing a corpus of Arabic phrasebooks published in nine languages English French German Spanish Portuguese Italian Yiddish Hebrew Russian and in the territory of twenty five modern countries Beginning with Napoleon s Expedition d gypte 1798 1801 it moves through the periods of mass tourism and European colonialism in the Middle East concluding with the Second World War The book also considers how Arab intellectuals understood the project of teaching Arabic to foreigners the remarkable history of Arabic learning among Yiddish and Hebrew speaking immigrants in Palestine and the networks of language learners teachers and plagiarists who produced these phrasebooks Navigator Dimensions Year 5: Teaching Guide Lockwood,2005-05-09

I visited one of Deborah's schools in East Harlem and saw the joy and curiosity on the faces of children and teachers alike. I took time then to carefully describe the school's practices including its portfolio-based assessment system because I believed the word needed to be spread. I still do. Happily this new book from Deborah and her colleagues at the Mission Hill School adds to the literature on creative and collaborative teaching and on building trusting and powerful learning communities.

Linda Darling Hammond, Charles E. Ducommun, Professor of Education, Stanford University. Here is a book that shatters the prevailing definition of a good school as one with high test scores. Teaching in Themes makes clear the often hidden fact that there are many kinds of good schools for children, adults, and a democratic society, past and present. Experienced teachers tell a fascinating story about Boston's Mission Hill School, its goals, curriculum, classroom lessons, and assessments that will knock the socks off many true believers in only one kind of a good school.

Larry Cuban, Professor Emeritus of Education, Stanford University. Real student engagement is not the result of entertaining instruction; it is borne from students being passionate about their own learning about becoming young experts. This book gives a behind-the-scenes look at Mission Hill, a remarkably successful public school where the quality of student thinking and student work takes precedence over test scores and where thematic learning builds powerful intellectual bridges within classrooms and across the school.

Ron Berger, chief academic officer, Expeditionary Learning. It's Not Your Fault Jillian Campana, Dina Amin, The Cairo Writers Lab, 2023-03-07. A collection of original short plays that focus on sexual harassment and assault in Egypt by debut Egyptian playwrights. These five original short plays written by Egyptian students from the American University in Cairo in collaboration with Jillian Campana and Dina Amin mark the first published plays in Egypt that deal directly with sexual harassment. Sexual crimes are not limited to the workplace or the street; they happen everywhere, from the bedroom to the cafe, in shops, on modes of transportation, and in businesses, homes, outdoor areas, and educational and religious institutions. They can be perpetrated by a stranger, acquaintance, friend, family member, or loved one, and they can encompass many different types of sexual violence, including verbal, non-verbal, physical, or visual violence. This collection breaks social taboos by offering dramatic texts that reflect the reality of survivors of sexual harassment from multiple perspectives: families and couples, bystanders, victims, and perpetrators, men and women. Many of the women portrayed in these plays are independent, educated, and well-to-do, but they are all subjected to varying degrees of sexual harassment and violence. Accompanied with narrative commentary that places the events in context, these plays and the issues they explore seek to challenge dominant perceptions about sexual harassment in the region and to shine light on the power imbalances and disparities that give rise to it. They will be of interest to artists, social science researchers, educators, and anyone interested in the issue of sexual harassment and collaborative theater processes.

Playwrights: Yehia Abdelghhan, Marwan Abdelmoneim, Nour El-Captan, Passant Faheem, Nour Ibrahim, Noran Morsi, and Omar Omar. The research on which this book is based was awarded the Times Higher Education 2023 MENA Award for Research Project of the Year, Arts, Humanities, and Social Sciences. Performances of these
