Ritual, Emotion, and Materiality in the Early Christian World Soham Al-Suadi, Richard S. Ascough, Richard E. DeMaris, 2021-12-30 This volume advances our understanding of early Christianity as a lived religion by approaching it through its rites the emotions and affects surrounding those rites and the material setting for the practice of them The connections between emotions and ritual between rites and their materiality and between emotions and their physical manifestation in ancient Mediterranean culture have been inadequately explored as yet especially with regard to early Christianity and its water and dining rites Readers will find all three areas ritual emotion and materiality engaged in this exemplary interdisciplinary study which provides fresh insights into early Christianity and its world Ritual Emotion and Materiality in the Early Christian World will be of special interest to interdisciplinary minded researchers seminarians and students who are attentive to theory and method and those with an interest in the New Testament and earliest Christianity It will also appeal to those working on ancient Jewish and Greco Roman religion emotion and ritual from a comparative standpoint
