Closer Than You Think Deborah Heneghan, 2012-01-01 Describes instances where people have felt themselves in contact with deceased relatives and suggests ways to recognize such contacts even when they are very subtle and to learn from these experiences of another plane

Dance of the Crippled Angel Diane M. Reaves, 2007-11-05 Diane Reaves attempts to share the painful events of her personal tragedies endured as a survivor of severe child abuse at the hands of her own mother As well as enduring the violent suicide of her father Wishing to convey to many other survivors their own ability to forgive the unforgivable Believing that all survivors have the chance to break the cycle instead of repeating it With each story shared this survivor hopes to teach others that something good can come out of something bad

Cartography of Faith Dr. Dixil Lisbeth Rodriguez, 2024-02-05 Stories are the very fabric of life and ministry and they reiterate that God is present in our lives Dr Dixil Lisbeth Rodriguez has collected stories of her learning interactions with others and of her observations within the scope of academia and chaplaincy She was driven to do so by a desire to find lessons from Scripture in everyday life In this book she leads readers on a reflective journey of faith sharing moments where she s been inspired and engaged by the divine While such encounters are often brief they can bring significant meaning to life engaging questions the reader may be challenged and familiar with She shares her insights with the belief that we are not irrelevant to God and that each one of us should search for the obvious work of the Spirit in our lives and in that of others That can be a true challenge in a world that moves at a fast pace and where technology tends to deprive us of a meaningful direct and personal connection with others These stories are a testimony that human beings are not abandoned by God they provide evidence that God is active in our individual lives through the Holy Spirit The Ministry of Angels Mrs Joy Snell,2020-05-08 A personal account of what lies beyond death This remarkable book sets forth what one woman learned of the Ministry of Angels on earth and of life in other spheres of existence beyond this world It was written because Joy Snell knew that rare psychic powers had been bestowed on her She was permitted to pierce the impenetrable veil and see what is hidden from the majority of mankind until after death She felt it was divine will that she might tell others something of what was revealed to her The book is sent forth in the earnest hope that it may be the means of bringing comfort to some of the millions in many lands who mourn their dead

An Angel Named Sally and Two Guardian Angels Marilyn (McQuiston) Graham,2014-12-11 This is a biography of two wonderful women who were instrumental in bringing public awareness for the mentally disabled in 1940s to 1980s and a little girl with Down syndrome Irene Otteman and Margaret McQuiston dedicated their lives to making a better world for the mentally disabled The story explains difficulties challenges and successes It includes hopes dreams and emotional turmoil It talks about lifestyle changes and how far society has come in recognizing those who are different Programs the two started in Central Michigan include the Day Center which was the first educational opportunity for mentally disabled children in Isabella County Michigan Education was not available before these two women became advocates for the mentally disabled A parent s association became part of the Mt Pleasant Regional Center also known as the State Home and Training School because Margaret and Irene became involved In addition Irene was the first to suggest Central Michigan University Special Olympics and Devine Houses for the Disabled The parent s association Association of Interfaith Ministry and Mid Michigan Industries are all historical parts of those early beginnings The world is a better place because of people like Irene and Margaret who went the extra mile in helping those who couldn t help themselves 44 New Directions Anthology,1981
