Ancient Middle East Documentary:

Modernism and the Middle East Sandy Isenstadt, Kishwar Rizvi, 2011-03-01 This provocative collection of essays is the first book length treatment of the development of modern architecture in the Middle East Ranging from Jerusalem at the turn of the twentieth century to Libya under Italian colonial rule postwar Turkey and on to present day Iraq the essays cohere around the historical encounter between the politics of nation building and architectural modernism s new materials methods and motives Architecture as physical infrastructure and as symbolic expression provides an exceptional window onto the powerful forces that shaped the modern Middle East and that continue to dominate it today Experts in this volume demonstrate the political dimensions of both creating the built environment and subsequently inhabiting it In revealing the tensions between achieving both international relevance and regional meaning Modernism in the Middle East affords a dynamic view of the ongoing confrontations of deep traditions with rapid modernization Political and cultural historians as well as architects and urban planners will find fresh material here on a range of diverse practices The Middle East Barry Rubin, 2015-03-17 The Middle East is an area of great importance globally yet misperceptions abound Events have made it a region of special interest to the West and so the search for understanding gains momentum This publication is intended to clarify the region s complex history and issues In developing this project the contributors set out to explore seven significant themes that are usually not found in other sources While many books focus on political history and conflicts this two volume work deals specifically with culture religion women economics governance and media as well as the role that the region s modern history has played in shaping its society and worldview THE POETIC DOCUMENTARY: FROM JORIS IVENS TO NONNY DE LA PEÑA Vlad Alexandru, 2020-11-28 The work entitled The Poetic Documentary From Joris Ivens to Nonny de la Pe a documented the poetic documentary from the first public film projection made on December 28th 1895 fighting the dominance of the consumption area fueled by the desire to mature the maturity of the genre itself as well as the future trends towards which this kind of documentary film directs itself as well as the appearance of new technologies such as virtual reality or the concept of cloud filmmaking The research focuses on the diegetic world of the documentary film both from the historically point of view and from specialized criticisms in order to highlight the current theoretical knowledge and a few research perspectives for the future in order to test the applicability of the aesthetic elements as an universal aspect in the construction of the poetic documentary A Century of British Geography Ron Johnston, Michael Williams, 2022-09-11 These essays trace the evolution of British geography as an academic discipline during the last hundred years and stress how the study of the world we live in is fundamental to an understanding of its problems and concerns Never before has such an ambitious and wide ranging review been attempted and never before has it been done with so much knowledge and passion The principal themes covered in this volume are those of environment place and space and the applied geography of map making and planning The volume also addresses specific issues such as disease urbanization regional viability and ethics and social problems This lively and accessible work offers many insights into the minds and practices of today's geographers

Consortium of College and University Media Centers,1990 Roots of the New Arab Film Roy Armes,2018-01-06

Roots of the New Arab Film deals with the generation of filmmakers from across North Africa and the Middle East who created an international awareness of Arab film from the mid 1980s onwards These seminal filmmakers experienced the moment of national independence first hand in their youth and retained a deep attachment to their homeland Although these aspiring filmmakers had to seek their training abroad they witnessed a time of filmic revival in Europe Fellini and Antonioni in Italy the French New Wave and British Free Cinema Returning home these filmmakers brought a unique insider outsider perspective to bear on local developments in society since independence including the divide between urban and rural communities the continuing power of traditional values and the status of women in a changing society As they made their first films back home the feelings of participation in a worldwide movement of new independent filmmaking was palpable

Roots of the New Arab Film is a necessary and comprehensive resource for anyone interested in the foundations of Arab cinema Soviet Film ,1982 Egypt and the Eastern Mediterranean World Jelle Bruning,Janneke H. M. de Jong,Petra

M. Sijpesteijn,2022-12-15 During the period 500 1000 CE Egypt was successively part of the Byzantine Persian and Islamic empires All kinds of events developments and processes occurred that would greatly affect its history and that of the eastern Mediterranean in general This is the first volume to map Egypt's position in the Mediterranean during this period Drawing on a wide range of disciplines the individual chapters detail its connections with imperial and scholarly centres its role in cross regional trade networks and its participation in Mediterranean and Near Eastern cultural developments including their impact on its own literary and material production With unparalleled detail the book tracks the mechanisms and structures through which Egypt connected politically economically and culturally to the world surrounding it Prehistoric Humans in Film and Television Michael Klossner,2015-01-09 From the early days of the movies cavemen have been a popular subject for filmmakers not surprisingly since the birth of cinema occurred only a few decades after the earliest scientific studies of prehistoric man Filmmakers however were not constrained by the emerging science instead they most often took a comedic look at prehistory a trend that continued throughout the 20th century Prehistoric humans also populated adventure fantasy films with the original One Million B C 1940 leading the charge Documentaries were also made but it was not until the 1970s that accurate film accounts of prehistoric humans finally emerged This exhaustive work provides detailed accounts of 581 film and television productions that feature depictions of human prehistory Included are dramas and comedies set in human prehistory documentaries and films and television shows in which prehistoric people somehow exist in historical periods from the advent of civilization up to the present or in extraterrestrial settings Each entry includes full filmographic data including year of release running time production personnel cast information and format A description of each film provides background on the prehistoric elements Contemporary critical commentary is included for many of the works

International Handbook of Historical Archaeology
Teresita Majewski, David Gaimster, 2009-06-07 In studying the past archaeologists have focused on the material remains of our ancestors Prehistorians generally have only artifacts to study and rely on the diverse material record for their understanding of past societies and their behavior Those involved in studying historically documented cultures not only have extensive material remains but also contemporary texts images and a range of investigative technologies to enable them to build a broader and more reflexive picture of how past societies communities and individuals operated and behaved Increasingly historical archaeology refers not to a particular period place or a method but rather an approach that interrogates the tensions between artifacts and texts irrespective of context In short historical archaeology provides direct evidence for how humans have shaped the world we live in today Historical archaeology is a branch of global archaeology that has grown in the last 40 years from its North American base into an increasingly global community of archaeologists each studying their area of the world in a historical context Where historical archaeology started as part of the study of the post Columbian societies of the United States and Canada it has now expanded to interface with the post medieval archaeologies of Europe and the diverse post imperial experiences of Africa Latin America and Australasia The 36 essays in the International Handbook of Historical Archaeology have been specially commissioned from the leading researchers in their fields creating a wide ranging digest of the increasingly global field of historical archaeology The volume is divided into two sections the first reviewing the key themes issues and approaches of historical archaeology today and the second containing a series of case studies charting the development and current state of historical archaeological practice around the world This key reference work captures the energy and diversity of this global discipline today

Documenting Syria
Josepha Ivanka Wessels, 2019-07-11 Syria is now one of the most important countries in the world for the documentary film industry Since the 1970s Syrian cinema masters played a defining role in avant garde filmmaking and political dissent against authoritarianism After the outbreak of violence in 2011 an estimated 500 000 video clips were uploaded making it one of the first YouTubed revolutions in history This book is the first history of documentary filmmaking in Syria Based on extensive media ethnography and in depth interviews with Syrian filmmakers in exile the book offers an archival analysis of the documentary work by masters of Syrian cinema such as Nabil Maleh Ossama Mohammed Mohammed Malas Hala Al Abdallah Hanna Ward Ali Atassi and Omar Amiralay Joshka Wessels traces how the works of these filmmakers became iconic for a new generation of filmmakers at the beginning of the 21st century and maps the radical change in the documentary landscape after the revolution of 2011 Special attention is paid to the late Syrian filmmaker and pro democracy activist Bassel Shehadeh and the video resistance from Aleppo and Raqqa against the regime of President Bashar al Assad and the Islamic State An essential resource for scholars of Syrian Studies this book will also be highly relevant to the fields of media conflict research anthropology and political science Ethics and Lao-Tzu Ed Mendelowitz,Edward Mendelowitz,2008

Ethics and Lao Tzu is an intricate story of psychotherapy Dr Mendelowitz draws on great literary psychological and philosophical works in describing the journey of existential therapy The book follows the story of Kristina a client of Dr Mendelowitz with multiple personalities i e Dissociative Identity Disorder Kristina s story is told in part through her artwork which illustrates her journey through visually stunning pieces of art each imbued richly with symbolism and meaning Along the way Mendelowitz creates a collage between the artwork stories and letters from their therapy illustrative quotes from classic works and Mendelowitz s own poetic thoughts Throughout the book Mendelowitz invites the reader to come along exploring the depths of the human soul Kirk Schneider refers to Mendelowitz as the poet laureate of existential psychology In Ethics and Lao Tzu Mendelowitz illustrates why this high praise from the leading existential psychologist in the United States is so fitting

The War on Terror Derek Paget,Stephen Lacey,2015-05-22 This book explores the ways in which television has engaged directly and indirectly with the new realities of the post 9 11 world It offers detailed analysis of a number of key programmes and series that engage with or are haunted by the aftermath of the events of September 11 in the USA and what is unavoidably through problematically and contentiously referred to as the resulting war on terror The substantive part of the book is a series of independent chapters each written on a different topic and considering different programmes It includes series and single dramas representing the invasion of Iraq The Mark of Cain Occupation and Generation Kill comedic representations Gary Tank Commander documentary the BBC Panorama s coverage of 9 11 what if docudramas Dirty War 9 11 in popular series CSI NY and representations of Tony Blair in drama and docudrama The book concludes with an extended reflection on contemporary docudrama and an interview with filmmaker and docudramatist Peter Kosminsky
