Posting the Male Daniel Lea, Berthold Schoene-Harwood, 2003 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion

Span the World with Friendship Douglas Bourn, Richard Palser, 2025-06-02 Within the histories of progressive educational movements and youth work one organisation that rarely gets a mention is the Woodcraft Folk Founded in 1925 it has been consistently at the forefront of promoting radical social change through education It played a role in breaking down the barriers between East and West during the Cold War in promoting a co educational and cooperative based approach to learning and in encouraging environmental activism at a time when it was unfashionable The Woodcraft Folk s evolving approach to education for social change is explored in Span the World with Friendship from a range of disciplinary perspectives including political and social theory cultural history anthropology educational theory and youth work theory Through investigation of published and primary sources including letters meeting records and oral testimonies contributors bring scholarship to a narrative that has often been uncritical Beginning with a biography of founder Leslie Paul chapters study the Folk s relationship to debates in the labour movement the extent to which the eugenics movement influenced its ideas and practices and how the folk songs and dances used within the organisation reflected wider social and cultural trends Internationalism is a key theme running through this book which concludes with a focus on how the Woodcraft Folk s progressive nature is moving it increasingly towards being a youth led movement
