THE FRENCH REVOLUTION [1789-1799]
CAUSES OF THE FRENCH REVOLUTION

There is no a single factor that can adequately explain the outbreak of the 1789 revolution in France. Thus a plethora of factors are attributed to the outbreak of this revolution. These factors can be divided into political, social and economic factors.

Political Causes of the Revolution

1) The feudal system of government

Louis xvi's reign began in 1774. His government rewarded the nobility rather than experts. During his reign there was no career open to talent. All top posts in government, army, navy and diplomatic services were reserved for the nobility by birth rather than efficiency and ability. Also higher offices in church were held by the aristocracy. This implies that Louis xvi's government was unmeritocratic [it was not based on merit]. The nobility were all burnt on maintaining their political privileges. Businessmen, financiers, doctors, merchants and lawyers collectively were excluded by chances of birth from most of the dignified offices in the state and church. The middle class supplied much of the funds for the government but disliked their exclusion from politics. This political exclusivism was one of the bitterest grievances of the bourgeoisie. The people of France therefore wanted a better administration.

2) Autocratic rule / Royal absolutism / Tyrannical rule

Louis xvi was a despotic ruler. All power of the government emanated from Louis xvi and he was above the law. He ruled not by permission of the people but by divine right. He ruled without a parliament and his word was the law. By the time of the revolution there was no regular means by which people's needs could be channeled. This despotic government was becoming more and more inefficient. The strongest expression of this power was the lettres de cachet, that is, imprisonment without trial of all people who sufficiently displeased the government [arbitrary imprisonment]. The government of Louis xvi arrested people for trivial cases, often with the use of lettres de cachet. There was no proper trial of the poor. Up to 14 000 arrests were recorded during the reign of Louis xvi and 1500 during the reign of Louis xv. There were no government critics during Louis xvi's reign. The bourgeoisie resented not being able to criticise openly a ridiculous system of government. More so, there was strict censorship during his reign. Editors of newspapers were told what, when and how to write. There was no freedom of speech and expression. Hence a revolution was imminent.

3) The American war of independence / The American Revolution

The French interference into the American war of independence [from Britain] of 1776-1783 caused the French revolution. The war provided a practical example of a revolution. The war led to the spread of new ideas such as freedom against tyranny, need for sovereignty and a constitution. The Americans were fighting against proposed taxation, whilst the French were actually being subjected to taxation. This then prompted the French to revolt against the system.
