Zimbabwe International Monetary Fund. African Dept.,2014-07-22 EXECUTIVE SUMMARY Zimbabwe s performance under the Staff Monitored Program SMP has been broadly satisfactorily through the difficult electoral transition period and the authorities have taken corrective measures to restore a track record of policy implementation going forward In the attached Letter of Intent LOI the authorities outline progress in implementing the SMP the agreed quantitative targets and structural benchmarks to be monitored for the third review and their plans to advance the structural reform agenda and to more generally strengthen performance under the SMP Performance under the staff monitored program The SMP provided a useful anchor for Zimbabwe in an election year However progress in implementing the program was slowed by a long electoral process and a protracted post election transition as well as an adverse external environment Thus a number of quantitative targets and structural benchmarks were not met The authorities have began implementing policy measures and a program of reforms aimed at addressing the fiscal gap that has emerged for 2014 improving the quality of public expenditures enhancing financial sector stability and moving forward delayed structural reform measures The authorities have reiterated their continued commitment to the policies agreed under the SMP and to enhanced engagement with the creditors and the international community The authorities have agreed to the publication of the Letter of Intent and the staff report

Report on a Joint Mission to Evaluate Primary Health Care in Zimbabwe ,1984 Socioeconomic Stress, Health and Child Nutritional Status in Zimbabwe at a Time of Economic Structural Adjustment Leon A. Bijlmakers,Mary T. Bassett,David Sanders,1998 The exact implications of implementing structural adjustment in the social sector in Africa have been hotly disputed and have polarized researchers Using an empirically grounded longitudinal study of urban and rural households in Zimbabwe this report examines the consequences of market based economic reforms It focuses on observed changes in the household economy in urban and rural Zimbabwe The study offers extensive documentation and analysis of shifts in the health status and behavior of the people as well as changes in health outcomes especially as they relate to nutritional status and child mortality The authors make the case for policy reforms that could safeguard the health and well being of people at a time of continuing economic decline

The Zimbabwe Science News ,2002 Zimbabwe's Harmonized Cash Transfer Programme: 12-month impact report on productive activities and labour allocation Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2018-04-13 This impact evaluation report uses a 12 month panel data set with a non experimental design to analyse the impact of the Harmonized Cash Transfer Programme HSCT on individual and household economic decision making including agricultural and non agricultural productive activities and assets labour supply credit and social networks Attention is also paid to the role of household agricultural activities in household nutrition and dietary diversity The general framework for empirical analysis consists of a double difference estimation approach with a counterfactual The findings reveal positive impacts of the HSCT on livelihood and nutrition indicators although impacts vary based on the degree of labour constraint among beneficiary families Uganda Telephone Directory ,1990 Where In the World Should I Invest K. Rahemtulla,2012-02-28 A fascinating exploration of which countries offer promising investment opportunities for Americans now and in the years to come Most emerging markets investment guides focus on financial metrics but fail to provide the reader with new and relevant insights into the history of the countries the views of the people on the street and the financial shenanigans that go on behind the scenes that make for truly informed investing As a result despite the growing interest in investing in these markets investors are often missing key opportunities because they either have incorrect information about a country where they might invest or simply don t know what questions they should be asking Where In the World Should I Invest An Insider s Guide to Making Money Around the Globe is here to help Drawing on author Karim Rahemtulla s personal experiences traveling the globe and exploring the capitals where business is transacted the book outlines the perils pitfalls and rewards of investing in low float markets The essential resource for taking the right steps in exploring investment opportunities in foreign and emerging markets Expert advice from an author with 20 years experience covering emerging markets Commentary on the expectations of foreign investors the fears of investing abroad how to set up legal offshore accounts and much more Packed with unique insights into twenty countries and regions around the globe based on the author s extensive interviews and travels Where In the World Should I Invest is a must read for anyone thinking of expanding their investment portfolio overseas Multi-party Elections in Africa Michael Cowen,Liisa Laakso,2002 Most of the studies in this book are about national elections in Anglophone Africa There are also less well known examples from Sudan Ethiopia and Guinea Bissau The collection also features studies of the local elections in Namibia and of a significant by election in Malawi The multiparty period has been put wherever possible within the historical context of earlier elections in Africa Questions addressed include how did incumbent governing regimes learn to live with multiparty politics Why have some elections been so closely fought and others have suffered from apathy Why has there been relatively open political expression and activity when the elections have increased the political and economic manipulation by incumbent governments Why have the elections of the 1990s been so marked by local and ethnic variations To what extent did this wave of democracy result from pressure from donor countries North America Palgrave Structural Adjustment in Zimbabwe, 1991-94 Peter Gibbon,1995 Country Reports on Human Rights Practices ,2010
