COVID-19 and the Evolving Business Environment in Asia Andrei O. J. Kwok, Motoki Watabe, Sharon G.M. Koh, 2022-06-30
This book brings together valuable insights about the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on the business environment from an Asian perspective. While some businesses in Asia have been swift to embrace the new normal others have found the disruption to the traditional way of doing business challenging. Businesses are striving to respond, adapt and thrive under the shadow of the unprecedented upheaval to the business environment that has forced them to rethink their strategies, processes and operating models. There seems to be a consensus among business scholars and stakeholders that the continuous embrace of change and transformation of business models will assist businesses to sustain a long term competitive advantage. The chapters in this book explore shifts in business innovation and strategies linked to the new normal of doing business during the pandemic, bringing to light issues, challenges and opportunities that firms can expect to face in their need to ensure sustainability post pandemic and beyond.

Creativity and Strategy Chetan Walia, 2021-06-21
This book provides an integrative analysis of creativity and strategic practices, particularly strategic problem formulation and strategic decision making. It examines the decision and not the individual as a unit of analysis, which leads to a deeper understanding of creative outcomes. It draws a correlation between strategic intent and creative outcomes, both positive and negative, and provides an integrated framework for understanding creativity. Finally, the book develops a creative strategic framework and draws conclusions for the practice of management and for future research.
